SFA Gardens' Theresa and Les Reeves Lecture Series for 2027

The 2027 Theresa and Les Reeves Lecture Series includes a lineup of presentations that will excite horticulturists, native plant enthusiasts and East Texas gardeners. More information about upcoming lectures is provided on the SFA Calendar and this page closer to the date of the presentation.

SFA Gardens welcomes donations to support the Theresa and Les Reeves Lecture Series. Visit https://www.sfasu.edu/gardens/support/give, email sfagardens@sfasu.edu or phone 936-468-4129 to learn how you can support the lecture series and SFA Gardens.

2027 Lecture Series Presentations

Date	Presenter	Affiliation	Presentation Title
Jan. 14	Bayli Brossette	Caroline Dormon Nature Preserve	Briarwood, the Caroline Dormon Nature Preserve
Feb. 11	Jenna Alcala	Buchanan's Nursery	Supporting Wildlife with Native Plants
Mar. 11	Jordan Cunningham	SFA Gardens	Plant Sale Preview: Complementing Plants for Garden Landscapes
Apr. 8	Lindsey Stone	Texas A&M Forest Service	Winning the War Against Invasive Exotics: From Recognition to Reaction
May 13	Jacob Martin	Mercer Arboretum & Botanic Gardens	From Big Bend to the Piney Woods: Mercer Beyond the Garden
Jun. 10	Carol Clark	Monarch Watch	Planting for Monarchs and Other Pollinators in Urban, Suburban and Larger Landscapes
Jul. 8	Ed Bush	Louisiana State University	Everything You Wanted to Know About Composting but Were Too Shy to Ask
Aug. 12	Adam Black	Bartlett Tree Research Laboratories and Arboretum	Plant Explorations in Texas and Around the World
Sep. 9	Greg Grant	Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service	From Arcadia to Arcadia: Grannies, Kissing Cousins and Narcissus
Oct. 14	Keith Hansen	East Texas Gardening	Naturalistic Landscape: Mistakes Made, Learning Lessons, Observations, Plus a Few Longtime Favorite Plants
Nov. 11	Cheston Schayot	Louisiana State University	The Hidden Half: Exploring Roots in the Urban Environment
Dec. 9	Dave Creech	SFA Gardens	An End of the Year Review: How Much Fun are we Really Allowed to Have Here?