SFA Wellness Model

Wellness is the on-going process of making healthy choices to maintain balance in all dimensions of life.

Intellectual Health: Developing and using one’s ability to think and reason
- Educational and Professional Goals
- Adaptation to Change
- Creativity
- Lifelong Learning
- Service Learning
- Awareness of Current Events
- Critically Evaluating Information

Career/Financial Health: Engaging in meaningful work and responsible monetary practices
- Household and Family Management
- Purposeful and Rewarding Career
- Balance of Work and Leisure
- Financial Stability and Planning

Spiritual Health: Exploring value and meaning in one’s life
- Life Satisfaction
- Introspection and Contemplation
- Sense of Belonging
- Thinking Beyond One’s Self
- Purpose
- Belief System, Ethics and Values
- Hope and Optimism

Emotional Health: Awareness, acceptance and a healthy expression of one’s feelings
- Assertiveness and Healthy Boundaries
- Intimacy
- Interdependence and Independence
- Stress management
- Positive Attitude and Outlook on Life
- Coping and Communication Skills
- Choosing One’s Reactions to Life
- Expression of Emotions

Physical Health: Taking care of one’s body
- Dietary Intake and Food Security
- Medical Awareness and Disease Prevention
- Safe Habits
- Adequate Sleep
- Choice-Making Behavior
- Regular Physical Activity

Socio-Cultural Health: Effectively relating to others, your community and your world
- Tolerance, Acceptance and Understanding
- Respect for All Cultures
- Fairness and Justice
- Family and Friends
- Satisfying Interpersonal Relationships
- Involvement in Community Welfare/Volunteerism
- Citizenship

Environmental Health: Caring for the Earth and one’s surroundings
- Sustainable Living
- Creating Safe and Healthy Environments
- Protection and Enhancement of Resources
- Understanding Effects of Personal Choices