Probation

A student is placed on academic probation after the first regular semester in which the GPA fails to meet the minimum standard (2.0 cumulative GPA). Probation students whose semester GPA is 2.0 or higher will be placed on extended academic probation until the cumulative GPA is 2.0 or higher. Academic probation will continue until the student achieves good standing or is suspended from the university.

Suspension

A student is placed on academic suspension after a regular semester that immediately follows a semester of probation if the student’s semester GPA falls below 2.0.

Reinstatement

A student on academic suspension may be allowed to continue at the university through any of the following procedures:

1.) Following the student’s first suspension, attend summer school at Stephen F. Austin State University and:
   a. Raise his/her GPA to the minimum university standard (2.0)
   OR
   b. Pass with a C average or better in at least nine semester credit hours as specified by his/her dean.
2.) Following the first suspension, the student is reinstated on probation automatically after one regular semester’s absence from the university. Following the second or subsequent suspension, the student is reinstated on probation automatically after an absence from the university of two regular semesters. Summer terms are exempted from periods of academic suspension. Students who have sat out a regular semester must reapply for admission as a former student and meet the former student requirements to be reinstated.
3.) Follow procedures established by his/her dean.
