SYLLABUS – THEATRE APPRECIATION

Instructor: Dr. Inga Meier
Email: meieri@sfasu.edu
Office Hours: T, TH 3:00-5:30 + By Appointment
Office Location: GFA 223
Mailbox: GFA 212B

Semester: Spring 2016
Course Number: 161.003
Meeting Time: MWF 11:00-11:50 am
Meeting Room: GFA 306

I. Course Description

This course will expose students to the art of theatre and theatrical works through reading, lecture, discussion and required attendance at play productions. A variety of dramatic literature will be read. Students will synthesize and interpret these works through written assignments, group projects, and discussion that will encourage critical thought and the development of intellectually defensible, conscientiously expressed personal opinion.

II. Course Objectives

Core Objectives:

- Critical Thinking Skills: to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information.
- Communication Skills: to include effective development, interpretation, and expression of ideas through written, oral, and visual communication.
- Teamwork: to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared goal or purpose.
- Social Responsibility: to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.

Student Learning Outcomes: Students who successfully complete this course will:

- develop basic understanding of dramatic literature, dramatic theory and criticism, and performance from multiple perspectives (Obj. #1)
- develop their abilities to analyze, write about, and discuss performance, both informally and through formal presentation (Obj. #1 + #2)
- learn functions of the various theatrical sub-disciplines and how they relate to each other in production, and the value and purpose of professional and artistic collaboration (Obj. #3)

1 You may refer to me as “Inga,” “Dr. Meier,” or “Ms. Meier.” You may not refer to me as “Prof,” “Professor Inga,” or “Doctor Inga.” If you insist on doing so, you are required to follow this wording with an acceptable title (e.g. “Yellow-Haired Warrior or “Mother of Dragons”).

2 Emails are not an instantaneous form of communication. In other words, please do not send me an email 20 minutes before class and then approach me in class, asking if I received your email. On average, expect a 24-hour turnaround time. Also, emails sent through D2L will not be answered. Please use only the SFA address.

3 “By appointment” means that if you are not available during my regular office hours, but need to meet with me, we can schedule an appointment. In other words, please don’t tell me, “I didn’t meet with you because I had class during your office hours.”
• learn a broad history of the theatre from ancient to modern, including non-traditional theatrical forms, theatre produced in non-Western cultures, and theatre for specific audiences (Obj. # 4)

III. Texts + Materials

- Attendance of the following School of Theatre productions:
  - Clybourne Park, Feb. 23 – 27, 7:30 pm
  - Festival of New American Plays, April 26-April 30, 7:30 pm + April 30, 2:30 pm
  - 1 Downstage from:
    - Lovely Head, Feb. 19-Feb 20, 7:00 pm, Feb. 20, 2:00 pm
    - A Dollar, March 4-5, 7:30 pm, March 5, 2:00 pm
    - The Lover, April 8-9, 7:30 pm, April 9, 2:00 pm
- Clybourne Park by Bruce Norris
- A Raisin in the Sun by Lorraine Hansberry
- Oedipus Rex by Sophocles (PDF)

The books are available at the campus Barnes and Noble in the student center. You may procure the book however you choose (campus bookstore, online, textbook rental, locally owned bookstores, sharing with a friend, etc.). However, it is your responsibility to have completed the required reading by the due date.

IV. Class Procedures and Policies

School of Theatre Attendance Policy: A career in the fine arts demands dedication and discipline; preparation for this career requires conscientious development of effective work habits. To this end, regular and punctual attendance is expected for all classes, laboratories and other activities for which a student is registered or assigned.

Further:

- It is University policy to excuse students from class attendance for certain reasons related to health, family emergencies, or student participation in approved university-sponsored events. Excused absences from theatre classes will only be granted upon presentation of written documentation from the teacher, sponsor, or physician involved upon the first day of the student’s return. In the case of absences caused by university-sponsored events, inclusion in the university's public listing of such absences will constitute an official excuse. It is the student's responsibility to inform the instructor that he/she has scheduled the planned official absence, in advance when possible.
- Students missing classes, other than university-sponsored trips, may contact the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities (OSRR) and request that an absence notification be sent to the instructor(s). The notification is not an excuse, and is not evaluated by OSRR. The notification is only provided as a courtesy to the student and the student's instructor(s). Students remain responsible for providing documentation in a timely manner to the instructor for each absence. The instructor determines whether such documentation is satisfactory.
- In the case of missed classes, you will be held responsible for the successful completion of assigned work and/or projects. It is your responsibility to seek out the materials and information you missed, including lecture notes, screenings, and announcements. “I didn’t know” will not be considered an excuse.
• A total of ten excused and/or unexcused absences will automatically result in a failing grade.
• Unexcused absences above 3 will result in a deduction of 10 points each off the participation grade (1% each off the final grade).
• Arriving to class after attendance has been completed or leaving prior to the end of class will be considered ½ an absence (which counts towards the maximum allowed of 9) and will be deducted from your grade accordingly.
• If at any point in the semester, you wish to know where you are at in terms of attendance, please approach me before or after class, during office hours, or email me.
• It is your responsibility to be aware of both the attendance policy and your attendance count.

V. Requirements

This is a university course, taken mostly by non-majors. Part of the expectation of this course is that your writing level be appropriate to a university-level course in the humanities. If you are not confident in your writing ability, make arrangements now to take advantage of the university’s various writing assistance programs. Start with the Academic Assistance and Resource Center (AARC) on the first floor of Steen Library.

Quizzes: There will a total of 3 quizzes covering the plays you will be reading. If you come to class after the quiz has been collected, you will not be allowed to make up the quiz. Likewise, if you arrive in class toward the end of the quiz, you will not be provided with additional time. Generally, make up quizzes will not be administered. (Rare exceptions to this may occur at my discretion and in accordance with the attendance policy.)

3 quizzes x 25 points each = 75 points total

Production Reviews: You are required to see the Mainstage productions of Clybourne Park and the Festival of New American Plays, as well as one Downstage and write 1 review on each. Due dates are listed under the course outline.

75 points x 3 commentaries = 225 points

Midterm Exam: The midterm exam will be held on Friday, March 11. It will consist of a variety of questions covering all terms and concepts discussed in the course, ranging across film viewings, lecture material, in-class discussion, and assigned readings. Typical question types may include: true / false, short answer, matching, multiple choice, term identification, and an essay.

200 points

Final Exam: The final exam will be held on Friday, May 4. It will consist of a variety of questions covering all terms and concepts discussed in the course, ranging across film viewings, lecture material, in-class discussion, and assigned readings. Typical question types may include: true / false, short answer, matching, multiple choice, term identification, and an essay. The final exam will not be cumulative.

200 points
Final Group Project: Final group projects will be presented and submitted on Wednesday, May 11, from 10:30 am to 12:30 pm. You will be divided into groups and develop a proposal to "produce" a play. You will be graded on completeness of project, originality, and collaboration (including a self-assessment by group members).

200 points

Participation / Effort: You are expected to come to class prepared and to be fully engaged during class discussions. This means that you are both physically and mentally present. As long as you meet both of these conditions, you will receive the full 100 points. However, absences (as outlined under the attendance policy) and disruptive behavior will lead to deductions.

100 points

Please note: Make up exams etc. will not be administered unless significantly extenuating circumstances can be demonstrated, in accordance with the attendance policy.

Acceptable Student Behavior: Classroom behavior should not interfere with the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to learn from the instructional program (see the Student Conduct Code, policy D-34.1). Unacceptable or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Students who disrupt the learning environment may be asked to leave class and may be subject to judicial, academic or other penalties. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including electronic, classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom. Students who do not attend class regularly or who perform poorly on class projects/exams may be referred to the Early Alert Program. This program provides students with recommendations for resources or other assistance that is available to help SFA students succeed.

Please note: Cell phone use during class is highly distracting, both to me, and the classmates seated behind you. It is also rude. I have teacher eyes and can see you, even when you think you are staging a covert operation by placing the phone on your lap. I will ask you once to put your cell phone away. If I have to ask you a second time in the same class period, you will be marked as absent, though you are welcome to stay. (Exceptions to this rule are disability related use of cell phones, and emergencies, which require the monitoring of text messages or email. Both of these must be discussed with me beforehand.)

VI. Grading Policies

Grading Scale:

Final Grades are assigned as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Range</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>900-1000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>800-899</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>700-799</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>600-699</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>less than 600</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Withheld Grades Semester Grades Policy (A-54): Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

VII. Diversity

This class engages material covering a diverse range of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, age, marital status, familial status, sexual orientation, and disability. While I encourage you to formulate and express your thoughts and opinions throughout the semester, discriminatory remarks will not be tolerated.

VIII. Academic Integrity

Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one's own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one's paper without giving the author due credit. Please read the complete policy at: http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/student_academic_dishonesty.pdf.

You are expected to be in full compliance with both the SFA policy and the School of Theatre policy:

SFA policy: Academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.

School of Theatre policy: The School of Theatre expects students to maintain the highest standards of academic conduct. Misrepresenting someone else's work as your own or knowingly allowing someone else to represent your work as his/hers constitutes academic dishonesty. Such behavior is antithetical to our work as scholars, as artists, and as members of a community founded on trust and mutual respect. It is an insult to faculty and an affront to honest students. Penalties for academic dishonesty may range from failure of a specific project to failure of the course, suspension from the production season for up to one year, and referral to university authorities for further action, which may include suspension or expulsion from the university.

Please Note: You are expected to be familiar with and able to demonstrate proper procedures for citations, following either MLA or Chicago Style guidelines, both of which are available online. Failure to cite sources is a form of academic dishonesty and will be treated accordingly. I will trust that you are invested in your own education and will not cheat. However, this trust should not be confused for a lack of vigilance on my part. If you are caught, I will consider it a violation of personal trust and will not hesitate to penalize you to the fullest extent possible. I guarantee that the penalty you may incur for a late assignment will be less than the penalty for academic dishonesty.

IX. Additional Information

If you have a disability: To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.

Religious observance: If your observance of a religious holiday will prevent you from attending class, please contact me immediately so we can make appropriate arrangements.
