

Financial Aid

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Appeal

NOTICE:

SAP Spring Appeals will be accepted beginning December but will not be reviewed until grades post for the FALL Semester.

The deadline for Spring appeals is February 14, 2020.

(30 days after the first class day)

Incomplete Appeal applications will be denied.

A student may need to file an appeal if:

1. Student is not meeting GPA standard (2.0 for undergrads; 3.0 for grads).
2. Student is not meeting Pace of Completion (passing 67% of attempted hours).
3. Student is at Max Hours (180 for undergrads; 54 for grads).

All SAP Appeals must include:

1. A completed SAP Appeal Form.
2. Typed statement explaining why the student is not meeting the SAP policy and the steps the student is taking to improve.
3. A 3rd Party document supporting your case.

NOTE: If submitting an appeal for “Max Hours”, a degree plan is required.

