Lost property means any unclaimed personal property, including money, coming into the possession of the university, other than motor vehicles as defined in the Texas Transportation Code. Lost property shall be deemed abandoned if the rightful owner does not come forward and make a valid claim within ninety (90) days of the university's original possession.

Unless the abandoned property is being held as evidence to be used in a pending criminal case, the university may dispose of the abandoned property by public auction sale. The profits proceeds of the auction sale shall will be used for student service activities as directed by the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs. Abandoned property before auction, then the university shall return the property to the rightful owner.

Should a person make a valid claim to property after it has been deemed abandoned, but prior to its disposition under this policy, the property will be returned to the owner.
