To All Tenure-track and Tenured Faculty,

The Faculty Senate is accepting nominations to the Faculty Senate for three-year terms that will run from school years 2015/2016 to 2017/2018. The Faculty Senate Constitution requires reapportionment of the Senate every three years. In addition, no more than two senators can be from the same department. The list of current senators can be found at http://www.sfasu.edu/fac senate/roster.asp. Based on the new apportionment and limits on departmental representation, the Elections Committee of the Faculty Senate would like to solicit nominations from the following colleges and departments:

College of Business (total of 3 senators) – needs 1 new senator from any department

College of Education (total of 7 senators) - needs 3 new senators:

 Cannot be from Elementary Education (they currently have two senators)

College of Liberal and Applied Arts (total of 7 senators) - needs 2 new senators:

 Cannot be from Language, Cultures, and Communication

College of Sciences and Mathematics - needs 1 new senator:

Cannot be from the Nursing department

College of Fine Arts (total of 3 senators) – No new senators needed

College of Forestry and Agriculture (total of 2 senators) – No new senators needed

Library (total of 1 senator) - No new senators needed

The two new Adjunct Faculty representatives will be elected by the Faculty Senate.

If you or someone you know is interested in serving on the Faculty Senate, please complete the attached nomination form and send it to Mary Olle, Elections Chair, ollemary@sfasu.edu no later than 5:00 pm, Friday, March 27. (Please confirm with the person you nominate that he or she is willing to serve.) Self-nominations are, of course, acceptable.

Voting will be through mySFA and will take place Wednesday, April 1, 2015 until noon Wednesday, April 8, 2015. Runoffs, if necessary, will take place Tuesday, April 14, 2015 until midnight, Tuesday, April 21, 2015. New senators will be announced on April 28, 2015.

Thank you for your service to our university.
