I. Call to Order
   Faculty Senate Chair Dr. Jeremy Stovall called the meeting to order at 2:30 P.M. He welcomed the senators to the Forestry building and introduced our guest speakers.

II. Presentations
   A. Dr. Scott Gordon, President, addressed the Faculty Senate and discussed coronavirus meetings on campus. He expressed continuity of instruction regarding the coronavirus. He met with four regional community college presidents about renewed partnerships and discussed transfer student potentiality. He mentioned new budget models for Summer ’21 and Fall ’21. He does not want to starve the academic side of the new budget model. He asked for questions. Dr. Stovall shared with Dr. Gordon the Faculty Senate amendment related to non-tenure track faculty. Dr. Gordon verbally told the Faculty Senate he formally approves the constitutional amendment. Dr. Stovall stated Dr. Gordon’s verbal approval allows for the finalization of this amendment.
   B. Dr. Steve Bullard, Provost & VPAA, shared experiences with his training on the coronavirus. He shared there may be a campus email going out. He mentioned an online option for students if necessary regarding coronavirus effects. Dr. Bullard also mentioned a new advertisement regarding summer courses for the SFASU campus. He mentioned promotion of summer courses as a better resource.
   C. Alisha Collins, Budget Analyst for Academic Affairs gave a PowerPoint presentation on the new SFASU Differential Tuition plan which will take effect Fall 2020. She detailed why SFASU is switching to a Differential Tuition plan: simplification of student billing, to provide transparency, to support the SFASU Strategic Plan targets, to emphasize credit hour production, to allow for costs to be weighted per credit hour for each discipline, to systematically distribute revenue, to allow for direct academic unit management, to reward positive annual change in semester credit hours, to provide reserve fund opportunities, to utilize longitudinal budget planning, and to complement state formula funding methodology and actual expenses per academic each academic unit. Ms. Collins also shared a detail process overview of the new SFASU Differential Tuition Charge.

D. Karyn Hall, Director of Institutional Research supported and presented with Alisha Collins regarding Differential Tuition.

E. Shea Roll, Assistant Director of Residence Life shared a presentation on SFASU Residence Life and the history/current presence of learning communities within Residence Life student support programs. She mentioned SFA 101 courses on campus and the living arrangements of students in SFA 101 being placed in residence halls near each other for campus life/academic support. She gave positive facts regarding students living in learning communities. She mentioned a transition toward a new model of students living together in the halls based on more courses they have in common.

III. Break – Committee Breakout Session (3:30pm – 3:35pm)

IV. Approval of Minutes from Meeting #464

Dr. Stovall asked for any changes to the Minutes from Meeting #464. Senator McKenna moved to accept minutes and motion was seconded by Senator Straub. Minutes were approved.

V. Officer Reports

A. Chair – Dr. Jeremy Stovall mentioned trends in other universities are similar to SFASU based on the Texas Council of Faculty Senates Meeting.

B. Chair-Elect – Dr. Andrew Lannen shared faculty senators should be receiving a link to take a survey for next year committee options.
