

SFASU History Department—Writing Enhanced Criteria

1. An annotated bibliography will be required in each writing enhanced course.
2. Students will complete a research paper which draws on primary source evidence in writing enhanced courses.
3. Students will write a minimum of 3,000 words (or approximately 10 pages) over the course of the semester in a writing enhanced class.
4. Students will be required to revise and re-submit at least one paper during the semester in a writing enhanced class.
5. Out-of-class writing assignments will count for a minimum of 20% of the course grade in a writing enhanced class.
6. Typically, there will be an enrollment limit of 25 students per writing enhanced section, but the cap may be increased as necessary in consultation with the professor.

Approved by vote of History 210/Writing Enhanced Committee, 7/17/08.