 Master of Science, Speech-Language Pathology

A graduate student is required to apply for admission to candidacy upon the completion of twelve (12) semester hours of graduate work at SFASU. The student must have been admitted to candidacy during the semester or summer session preceding the one in which graduation is scheduled.

To apply for admission to candidacy, secure a copy of your graduate transcript from the Registrar's Office and then take it, as well as this form and your degree plan (including any change forms that have been approved for the degree plan), to your major professor. In conference with your major professor, complete the form. The student will return the completed form to their graduate adviser during scheduled candidacy meeting.
