

SFASU Counseling Clinic

09/04/2012 – 08/31/2013*

The SFASU Counseling Clinic will project an average delivery of 3000 direct counseling hours to East Texas mental health consumers during FY 2013.

The SFASU Counseling Clinic projects an active caseload of an average of 60 mental health consumers during FY 2013.

The SFASU Counseling Clinic will collect approximately $4700 consumer fees during FY 2013

The SFASU Counseling Clinic will serve as the major practicum site for approximately 25 graduate counseling students during FY 2013.

The SFASU Counseling Clinic will serve as the primary skills development site for approximately 160 undergraduate rehabilitation counseling students during FY 2013.

The SFASU Counseling will complete and submit at least one formal grant application to appropriate funding sources during FY 2013.

Ongoing research for prospective grant opportunities.

The SFASU Counseling Clinic will serve as a major practicum research site for approximately 10 school psychology doctoral students during FY 2013.

09/01/2013 – Present*

The SFASU Counseling Clinic will project an average delivery of 2000 direct counseling hours to East Texas mental health consumers during FY 2014.

The SFASU Counseling Clinic projects an active caseload of an average of 50 mental health consumers during FY 2014.

The SFASU Counseling Clinic has collected & deposited $3566 consumer fees as of 6/19/2014

The SFASU Counseling Clinic will serve as the major practicum site for approximately 20 graduate counseling students during FY 2014.

The SFASU Counseling Clinic will serve as the primary skills development site for approximately 160 undergraduate rehabilitation counseling students during FY 2014.

The SFASU Counseling will complete and submit at least one formal grant application to appropriate funding sources during FY 2014.

Ongoing research for prospective grant opportunities.

The SFASU Counseling Clinic will serve as a major practicum research site for approximately 5 school psychology doctoral students during FY 2014.

*Data is commensurate with program student enrollment.