<sup>2</sup> An online course that may have mandatory face-to-face sessions totaling no more than 15% of the instructional time. Examples of face-to-face sessions include orientation, laboratory, exam review, or an in-person test.

<sup>3</sup> A course in which more than 50%, but less than 85%, of the planned instruction occurs when the students and instructor(s) are not in the same place.

<sup>6</sup> Use only if no other single mode accounts for 50% of the instruction or if the electronic instruction mode is not face-to-face, fully distance education, videotape/DVD and/or broadcast TV or two-way interactive video. Use HYFLX only when students choose delivery options.

<sup>7</sup> Courses delivered through Instructional Telecommunication to individuals via the internet, videotape, or live broadcast delivery systems (besides interactive video) or students in "individual instruction classes" which are located off-campus.
