Kente Cloth Ceremony

- Each year, the Office of Multicultural Affairs takes time to celebrate all of their student leaders, student ambassadors, and graduating OMA students.
- The Kente Cloth is a colorful fabric of Ghanaian origin: and it is often worn as a symbol of pride. Each graduating senior who has been actively involved with OMA is recognized at the end of the Fall and Spring semester. Seniors also receive a Kente Cloth as a symbol of the Office of Multicultural Affairs appreciation.
- When? April 24th, 2018
- Location: Twilight Ballroom (there can only be one guest invite per person to attend the ceremony with you)
- Qualifications: In order to qualify for the OMA Kente Cloth, students must have been actively involved (paid member) or employed with the OMA for an entire year and within the last 2 years. (Proof of membership may be asked for) graduating seniors must apply by April 12th by 5pm. Questions or concerns can be addressed with Dr. Griselda Flores floresg3@sfasu.edu

Lumberjack Care- Title IX Resources

SFA Students can utilize a lot of prevention, support, and response resources on this site:

<http://www.sfasu.edu/lumberjacks-care/>

There is a resource booklet located on the website above called: Sexual Assault Prevention & Response Resource Guide. Students can also complete an online reporting form for sexual misconduct.

Sexual Misconduct Prevention, Support, and Response Resources Site

	I want to report an incident		I want to learn more
	Policies and Procedures		I want to help stop the violence

The SFA way has 5 “Root principles” that allows the members of the SFA community to strive for personal excellence in everything. More information regarding the SFA way can be found at:
