Tunnel of Oppression: College Edition
November 5th-7th 6-9 PM
BPSC Movie Theater

The Lumberjack Cultural Association presents the Tunnel of Oppression, which is an interactive museum that spotlights different types of presentations. In the past, the event has shed light on issues ranging from human trafficking to genocide and suicide. The Tunnel of oppression will focus on issues pertaining to college students, but will be a learning opportunity for faculty, staff, and community as well. Nov. 5th is reserved for SFA 101 class, the 6th and 7th is open to the public.

Native American Heritage Month Celebration
November 14th
BPSC Plaza

Come join us as we celebrate Native American Heritage Month Celebration. Keitos Hoop Dancers and Native American Education will be on the BPSC Plaza to perform and education everyone in attendance with captivating traditional performances. Be prepared to learn of the background history and origins of Native American dance, steps, and songs.
Brave Space: Mixed Racial Identity

November 15th, 4 PM
BPSC Multimedia Room

The Office of Multicultural invites students, faculty and staff to come together to discuss intercultural/interfaith issues and concerns that affect our global, local and campus communities. Each meeting has a specific area of focus. This Brave Space session will be about people who are experiencing conflicts or distress due to mixed-race identity and/or multiracial identity. This session will be able to let participants view the thoughts and struggles a mixed/multiracial person goes through.

November 2018
Kristine Cross

Senior Nutrition and Dietetics Major

This month’s staff spotlight is Kristine Cross. She is a veteran amongst the OMA staff and always lends a hand to anyone in need. This year Kristine took her work to the next level by implementing a new monthly event titled “Something to Chew On”. She also manages to juggle school, the duties of Orientation Student Coordinator, as well as leadership positions in various community service organizations. If you see Kristine be sure to congratulate her on the tremendous work she has done in the OMA and throughout the campus!

Organization of Latin Americans

Endorsed Organization

We want to recognize OLA for their hard work on campus since the beginning of the semester. They have had the highest attendance at OMA events, continuously host their own programming, and fundraise tirelessly through the sales of different Latin American foods. They meet every Tuesday at 7 pm in the Multimedia Room if you are interested in joining this wonderful group.

Keep up the great work OLA!

STEPS TO GETTING INVOLVED...

DIVERSITY FORUMS
Getting involved with our diversity forums or panels gives you access to a free and comfortable space to discuss pressing issues in Nacogdoches. Let your voice be heard.

MLK SITE LEADER
Being a site leader on this day of service allows you to be both a volunteer and a leader. You will be the liaison between the community and the volunteers.

SPONSOR
Sponsoring an event through the OMA is another way to make an impact and allows us to extend our reach throughout the city. Make a difference in your community.

EVENTS
Come out to any and all OMA events! We are here to serve both the university and community, and we would love to interact. Have an event idea? Email us and we will get back to you.
