INTERESTED IN AN INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDY OF EUROPE?

Your degree could be based on the following component areas:

1. History and Civilization component – 12 hours minimum
   - HIS 326 – Age of Absolutism
   - HIS 328 – Contemporary Europe
   - HIS 330 - European Popular Culture
   - HIS 342 – History of England II
   - HIS 412 – Studies in European History
   - HIS 426 – French Revolution and Napoleon
   - HIS 457 – Europe and World War I
   - HIS 459 – Nazi Germany
   - FRE 330 – French Civilization
   - SPA 340 – History of Spanish Culture

2. Political Science and Geography component – 12 hours minimum
   - GEO 365 – Political Geography
   - GEO 375 – Topics in Geography (when topically appropriate)
   - GEO 450 – Area Studies (when topically appropriate)
   - PSC 240 – World Politics: Power and Money
   - PSC 304 – Major Foreign Governments
   - PSC 339 – The European Union
   - PSC 397 – Topics in International and Comparative Politics (when topically appropriate)

3. Arts and Literature component – 12 hours minimum
   - ART 281 – Art History Survey I
   - ART 282 - Art History Survey II
   - ART 445 – Northern Renaissance Art
   - ART 484 - Nineteenth-Century European Art
   - ART 485 – Italian Renaissance Art
   - ART 486 – Baroque Art
   - ENG 221 or 222 – British Literature
   - ENG 315 – Medieval British Literature
   - ENG 316 – Renaissance British Literature
   - ENG 317 - Restoration and 18\textsuperscript{th}-century British Literature
   - ENG 318 – Romantic and Victorian British Literature
   - ENG 319 – Modern and Contemporary British Literature
   - ENG 412 – Topics in British Literature
   - ENG 405 – Topics in Comparative World Literature
   - FRE 304 – Introduction to French Literature
   - FRE 436 – Special Studies in French Literature (when topically appropriate)
   - GER 330 – German Civilization and Culture
   - GER 435 – German Film and Literature
   - SPA 304 – Introduction to Hispanic Literature
   - SPA 445 – Special Studies in Peninsular Literature and Civilization

4. LBA 398

*Recommended 3 hours 300 or 400 level of French, Spanish, or German.