

University Awards Programs

Original Implementation: January 29, 2008

Last Revision: November 7, 2016

Cash awards may be given to employees as part of programs established by the university in recognition of outstanding teaching, research, service, or performance.

Employee cash award payments must be based on the published criteria and processes cross referenced below. University award programs must be approved by the provost and vice president for academic affairs for faculty, or by the president for staff. Award programs within a college are approved by the dean and the provost and vice president for academic affairs.

University-sponsored, campus-wide awards programs include, but are not limited to: Teaching Excellence Awards; Bright Ideas Conference Awards; Regents Professorships; and the president's staff awards.

These awards are paid as stipends and are not considered part of an employee's base appointment salary.
