

Assembly and Demonstrations

Original Implementation: July 1980

Last Revision: July 26, 2016

I. Introduction

1. Stephen F. Austin State University reaffirms its commitment to the freedoms of speech, expression and assembly by establishing this policy. Individuals have the right to assemble, to speak, and to attempt to attract the attention of others, and corresponding rights to hear the speech of others when they choose to listen, and to ignore the speech of others when they choose not to listen.
2. The rules articulated in this policy apply to all students, faculty, staff, and their official organizations, as well as all other persons and groups. Due to practical administrative realities, this policy does not apply to university agents and employees when they are acting in the course and scope of their agency or employment. This exception also includes the official activities of the SFA Alumni Association and the SFASU Foundation.
3. Students, faculty and staff are free to express their views, individually or in organized groups, orally, by sign or exhibit, on any topic, in all parts of the campus. Persons not affiliated with the university are free to express their views orally, by sign or exhibit, on any topic in areas designated for that purpose. These expressions are subject only to rules necessary to preserve equal rights of others and the functions of the university. Teaching, research and other official functions of the university shall have priority in allocating the use of space on campus.

II. Definitions

1. "Student" shall mean any person registered for academic credit at the university.
2. "Faculty" and "Staff" shall mean any person employed by the university.
3. "Official organization" shall mean any organization recognized by the university.

III. Rules

These rules shall govern the conduct of all assemblies and demonstrations on university property or at university-sponsored events.

1. Assemblies and demonstrations must be conducted in compliance with these rules, all other applicable university policies, and must not:
 - a. result in a breach of peace or violation of law;
 - b. negatively impact the security, health and safety of persons and/or property on campus; interfere with the free and unimpeded flow of pedestrian and vehicular traffic on campus or the entry or exit into university buildings;
 - c. materially disrupt or interfere with the normal activities of the university;
 - d. negatively impact the beauty of the university's grounds, buildings, and facilities; or
 - e. create unnecessary costs and waste university resources.

2. No person conducting or participating in an assembly or demonstration on university property or at university-sponsored events may advocate the deliberate violation of the law. For the purposes of this section, "advocate" means speech directed to inciting or producing the audience for imminent action with the likelihood of producing such action, as opposed to the abstract espousal of the moral propriety of a course of action.
3. Students, faculty, staff and their official organizations may assemble and/or demonstrate anywhere on university grounds between the hours of 8 a.m. and 7 p.m., Monday through Saturday, as long as the assembly and/or demonstration adheres to the provisions of Items 1 and 2 of this subsection and all other applicable university policies and procedures, and a properly submitted SFA Group Grounds Reservation form has been approved.
4. All other persons and groups may assemble and demonstrate in designated areas between the hours of 8 a.m. and 7 p.m., Monday through Saturday, as long as the assembly and/or demonstration adheres to the provisions of Items 1 and 2 of this subsection and all applicable university policies and procedures, and a properly submitted Outside Group Grounds Reservation form has been approved.
5. The university may designate certain days in which outdoor spaces may not be reserved. These will include, but are not limited to, commencements, admission office events, final exam week and new student orientation days. The determination of other days will be made by the assistant dean of student affairs for programs. Appeals may be made to the dean of student affairs.
6. Requests to reserve campus grounds for an assembly and/or demonstration must be made in writing using the appropriate form. These forms are available in the Student Activities office and on the Student Activities website. The completed form must be submitted to the assistant dean of student affairs for programs for approval and must be received at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the activity. This advance notice allows the university the opportunity to avoid the problem of simultaneous and/or competing assemblies or demonstrations and to arrange for adequate security. Each form requires the applicant to provide his/her name, address and phone number, in addition to signing and dating the form.
7. Although a reservation may be requested as many times per year as desired, no single reservation request can exceed 5 working days. Persons or groups reserving space and not using the space and which results in a violation of subsection 1 above may receive a verbal warning for their first offense, a written warning for their second offense and after a third occasion may be restricted from reserving campus grounds for a period not to exceed one year from the date of the last infraction.
8. Persons or groups who violate this policy may, based on the severity of the offense, be restricted from using university facilities or grounds. Such restriction will be made by the assistant dean of student affairs for programs and may be appealed to the dean of student affairs.
