

Prohibition of Enrollment Inducement of Military Service Members

Original Implementation: July 16, 2013

Last Revision: July 23, 2019

Stephen F. Austin State University prohibits inducements (including any gratuity, favor, discount, entertainment, hospitality, loan, transportation, lodging, meals, or other items having a monetary value of more than a de minimus amount) to any individual or entity (other than salaries paid to employees or fees paid to contractors in conformity with all applicable laws) for the purpose of securing enrollments of military service members or obtaining access to tuition assistance (TA) funds. This includes:

- Refraining from high-pressure recruitment tactics such as making multiple unsolicited phone calls to military service members for the purpose of securing their enrollment.
- Refraining from providing any commission, bonus, or other incentive payment based directly or indirectly on securing enrollments or federal financial aid (including TA funds) to any persons or entities engaged in any student recruiting, admission activities, or making decisions regarding the award of student financial assistance.
