This event will be a skill building opportunity for our graduate students in presenting data, public speaking, and communicating with others about theory and innovative research strategies.

Deadline to submit: February 22, 2019

Submissions: Student entries should be submitted using the online submission form available at:

http://sfasu.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_87hHSTb3LANosWF

Any questions can be addressed to the Graduate Research Conference Committee via email, grc@sfasu.edu.

The conference will include:
- 10-to-12-minute paper presentations
- poster presentations

What type of work should students submit to this conference?

- Graduate students are encouraged to submit any work that represents academic/scholarly activity that is appropriate for the graduate program from which they are submitting. Work does not have to be research-based or empirically-based.
- Submissions will be open to papers or projects completed up to a year prior.
- Submissions can include completed works or projects currently underway with preliminary findings (e.g., a proposal for a community outreach program or pilot study data). Submissions can also include a selected portion of a thesis project, enabling the student to refine a chapter and/or prepare for thesis defense.
