

The MIS is a 36-hour degree with thesis and non-thesis options. Students will pursue 9-12 hours in Public History. Students may select from the following:

Public History:

HIS 535 Introduction to Public History

HIS 537 Topics in Public History

HIS 570 Collections Management

HIS 581 Seminar in Public History

HIS 582 Internship in Public History

For the two remaining MIS areas, students may select from the four following component areas:

Resource Communication (all online unless otherwise indicated)

FOR 542 Human Dimensions of Natural Resources

FOR 551 Management of Outdoor Recreation Areas*

FOR 555 Environmental Communication and Interpretation*

FOR 556 Environmental Attitudes and Issues*

FOR 567 Oral Interpretive Programs

FOR 568 Interpretive Writing

FOR 569 Interpretive Research and /Evaluation

FOR 570 Field-Based Interpretive Programs

FOR 571 Curriculum-Based Interpretive Programs

FOR 572 Interpretive Planning

FOR 573 Interpretive Leadership

FOR 574 Advanced Interpretive Media and Graphics

FOR 577 Data Analysis

FOR 578 Cultural & Heritage Interpretation

FOR 579 Principles and Policies in Resource Interpretation

FOR 580 Adv. Professional Interpretation

*Course meets face-to-face

Students may select graduate courses from the three following fields with approval from the MIS director and area advisor.

Public Administration (all online)

PBA 500 Survey of Public Administration

PBA 505 Public Administration Methods

PBA 507 Applied Methods of Public Administration

PBA 510 Public Personnel Administration

PBA 515 Public Budgeting and Financial Management

PBA 520 Public Systems and Evaluation

PBA 525 Public Organizations and Management

PBA 535 Leadership in Public Administration

PBA 540 Administrative Law and Procedure

PBA 545 Ethics in Public Administration

Hospitality (all online)

HMS 500 Philosophy of Human Sciences

HMS 503 Cultural Aspects of Food

HMS 508 Sustainability

HMS 572 Topics in Human Sciences

HMS 578 Seminar

Anthropology, Geography, and Sociology

ANT 575 Graduate Independent Study

GEO 501 Seminar in Physical Geography

GEO 502 Seminar in Cultural Geography

GEO 503 Seminar in Regional Geography

GEO 504 Geographic Techniques

GEO 575 Advanced Graduate Studies

SOC 550 Social Statistics

SOC 551 Sociological Inquiry

SOC 575 Advanced Graduate Studies

Museum Studies

ART 505 Pro-Seminar in Art Museum Studies

ART 506 Seminar in Art Museum Education

ART 575 or 576 Advanced Graduate Studies

ART 592 Professional Practices

ART 597 Graduate Selected Topic

ART elective courses per director approval