Campus Programs for Minors

Original Implementation: April 23, 2013
Last Revision: April 12, 2016 April 30, 2019

Stephen F. Austin State University is committed to providing a safe environment for its students, employees and guests. The university sponsors programs on campus from time to time that involve minors. In addition, the university may grant use of its facilities to third parties for programs that involve minors. This policy provides for regulation of these campus programs for minors (CPM).

Definitions

Abuse – includes the following acts or omissions by a person:

a. mental or emotional injury to a child that results in an observable and material impairment in the child's growth, development or psychological functioning;
b. causing or permitting the child to be in a situation in which the child sustains a mental or emotional injury that results in an observable and material impairment in the child's growth, development or psychological functioning;
c. physical injury that results in substantial harm to the child or the genuine threat of substantial harm from physical injury to the child, including an injury that is at variance with the history or explanation given and excluding an accident or reasonable discipline by a parent, guardian or managing or possessory conservator that does not expose the child to a substantial risk of harm;
d. failure to make a reasonable effort to prevent an action by another person that results in physical injury that results in substantial harm to the child;
e. sexual conduct harmful to a child's mental, emotional or physical welfare, including conduct that constitutes the offense of continuous sexual abuse of a young child or children under Section 21.02, Penal Code, indecency with a child under Section 21.11, Penal Code, sexual assault under Section 22.011, Penal Code, or aggravated sexual assault under Section 22.021, Penal Code;
f. failure to make a reasonable effort to prevent sexual conduct harmful to a child;
g. compelling or encouraging the child to engage in sexual conduct as defined by Section 43.01, Penal Code, including compelling or encouraging the child in a manner that constitutes an offense of trafficking of persons under Section 20A.02(a)(7) or (8), Penal Code, prostitution under Section 43.02(b), Penal Code, or compelling prostitution under Section 43.05(a)(2), Penal Campus Program for Minors (CPM) – programs that:

a. include participants who are minors;

b. are operated by or on the campus of the university, including programs operated by third parties;

c. offer recreational, athletic, religious, or educational activities to participants for all or part of at least two (2) days.

Contact With Minor(s) – in the context of an employment or volunteer position described in this policy, interaction with minors that is direct and reasonably anticipated. The term does not include interaction that is merely incidental, or an employee or volunteer acting as a guest speaker, entertainer, or fulfilling any other role whose attendance at the campus program for minors is for a limited purpose or limited time if the employee or volunteer has no direct or unsupervised interaction with campers.

Minor – a child, under the age of 18, who is attending a campus program for minors.

Neglect - includes:

a. the leaving of a child in a situation where the child would be exposed to a substantial risk of physical or mental harm, without arranging for necessary care for the child and the demonstration of an intent not to return by a parent, guardian or managing or possessory conservator of the child;

b. the following acts or omissions by a person:

1. placing a child in or failing to remove a child from a situation that a reasonable person would realize requires judgment or actions beyond the child's level of maturity, physical condition or mental abilities and that results in bodily injury or a substantial risk of immediate harm to the child;

2. failing to seek, obtain or follow through with medical care for a child, with the failure resulting in or presenting a substantial risk of death, disfigurement or bodily injury or with the failure resulting in an observable and material impairment to the growth, development or functioning of the child;

3. the failure to provide a child with food, clothing or shelter necessary to sustain the life or health of the child, excluding failure caused primarily by financial inability unless relief services had been offered and refused;

4. placing a child in or failing to remove the child from a situation in which the child would be exposed to a substantial risk of sexual conduct harmful to the child; or

5. placing a child in or failing to remove the child from a situation in which the child would be exposed to acts or omissions that constitute abuse under “Abuse” definitions (e), (f), (g), (h) or (k) committed against another child.

c. the failure by the person responsible for the child’s care, custody, or welfare to permit the child to return to the child’s home without arranging for the necessary care for the child after the child has been absent from the home for any reason, including having been in residential placement or having run away; or

d. a negligent act or omission by an employee, volunteer, or other individual working under the auspices of a facility or program, including failure to comply with an individual treatment plan, plan of case, or individualized service plan, that causes or may cause substantial emotional harm or physical injury to, or the death of, a child served by the facility or program as further described by rule Neglect does not include the items specified under Tex. Family Code § 261.001(4)(B).

Reporting Neglect or Abuse

A person having cause to believe that a minor has been abused or neglected by any person shall immediately (within 48 hours) make a report to the University Police Department or other local law enforcement agency. This legal requirement must be communicated to all individuals participating in the management/supervision of CPMs and employees and volunteers of third-party camps utilizing university facilities.

Procedures for Campus Programs for Minors

The university will adopt a procedure for CPMs that will include, but not be limited to, the following:

- A designee(s) who is authorized to review and approve camps and programs for minors on behalf of the university;
- Procedures for reporting suspected abuse/molestation of minors;
- A requirement to purchase medical coverage through the university camp insurance program and to provide evidence of liability insurance endorsing sexual molestation coverage and listing the university as additionally insured at levels approved by and meeting the standards of Environmental Health, Safety, & Risk Management.
- Payment of required CPM administration fees as may be assessed.

Required Training

This policy requires child abuse prevention training for employees/volunteers of CPMs and establishes standards for such camps and programs.

An individual hired or assigned to an employee or volunteer position involving contact with minors at a camp and program for minors is required to complete training and examination on sexual abuse and child molestation meeting the following criteria:

- Successful completion of a Child Protection Training course approved by the Texas Department of State Health Services.
- Training must be completed prior to the employees’ or volunteers’ interacting with minors.
c. A certificate of completion shall be kept on file for two years.

d. Employees or volunteers of third-party camps using university facilities may substitute the university-approved training course with an approved course as listed with the Texas Department of State Health Services.

e. Training will not be required for university employees or third-party personnel whose positions of employment do not involve contact with minors at a CPM.
