If you have been awarded outside scholarships you must have the award sent to the college you will be attending. Stephen F. Austin State University requests that you have all outside scholarships submitted to our Business Office by Aug 1.

The work-study program provides students with an opportunity to earn money during the course of the semester. The student will only receive this aid if he/she finds an approved on-campus job. The student will then earn a paycheck for the number of hours worked per week. This type of aid does not credit the student's bill and is awarded throughout the semester.

You should begin checking your student portal weekly if you have been accepted into college. You should have received an award notification letter with instructions regarding how to accept or decline awards in your student portal. If you have already received an award package for 2019-20 it is important that you access your mySFA account and review and accept your awards or decline them. Awards will be canceled if no action is taken.

If you plan to take summer 2019 classes you must complete the 2018-19 FAFSA application online using 2016 tax information. The 2018-19 FAFSA deadline is June 30. Summer class registration is already open. Enroll and apply for financial aid now! You must be enrolled in at least six credit hours to qualify for summer financial aid.
