Financial & Housing COMMITMENTS

Financial requirements are an important consideration for anyone interested in joining the Greek community, so it is important for you to be as informed as possible regarding the costs associated with SFA’s Panhellenic chapters. If you accept an invitation to join a sorority, you will enter into a financial agreement and contract for housing and dues during your time as a collegiate member. On this and the next page you will find detailed financial information for each chapter.

Your chapter dues cover fees required by the National Panhellenic Conference, the sorority's headquarters, SFA’s Panhellenic Association, chapter officers' budgets, and chapter maintenance. As a new member, your first semester's dues will be the most expensive, as it covers one-time fees associated with your sorority.

We strongly encourage you to ask the chapters’ financial officer specific questions about the potential costs of membership so that you can be best informed.
