

STANLEY CENTER FOR SPEECH AND LANGUAGE DISORDERS

SUMMER CAMPS

THE ALPHABET ADVENTURERS

June 4-25

Tuesdays/Thursdays 9 to 10:30 a.m.

Ages: 4-5 years old

Cost: $150

Focuses on early reading skills and letter/letter sounds.

LITERARY LEGENDS

June 4-25

Tuesdays/Thursdays 12:30 to 2 p.m.

Ages: children entering first and second grades during 2025-26 school year

Cost: $150

Focuses on storytelling abilities, teaching parts of a story and how to tell stories. Narratives are an important link between oral and written language development. Children who successfully produce oral narratives have a foundational skill contributing to reading and writing.

SPEECH SQUAD

Session 1: June 4-25

Session 2: July 7-30

Tuesdays/Thursdays 11 a.m. to noon

Ages: 5-8 years old

Cost: $110

Focuses on correct production of speech sounds. This camp is for children who have been diagnosed with a speech impairment and would like to continue summer services. The camp will focus on already established speech goals from current school district or private clinics.

LITTLE TALES CAMP

July 7-30

Tuesdays/Thursdays 9 to 10:30 a.m.

Ages: 4-5 years old

Cost: $150

Focuses on storytelling abilities, teaching parts of a story and how to tell stories. Narratives are an important link between oral and written language development. Children who successfully produce oral narratives have a foundational skill contributing to reading and writing.

READING RANGERS

July 7-30

Tuesdays/Thursdays 12:30 to 2 p.m.

Ages: children entering first and second grades during 2025-26 school year

Cost: $150

Focus is reading enrichment. Camp will include learning specific phonics skills, reading books and participating in language-rich literacy activities.

Space is limited. To sign up for camps, call (936) 468-7109.

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN
STATE UNIVERSITY

Stanley Center for Speech and Language Disorders