

Jacob J. Cantu

2005 Washington Drive
Houston, Texas 77053

555.555.5555
Cantu.Jacob@gmail.com

Summary of Qualifications

Composed college graduate who is able to collect information and establish facts about the environment utilizing strong analytical, processing and implemental problem solving skills. Excellent ability to motivate and persuade others through exceptional interpersonal skills brought forth by demonstrating a healthy work ethic in a team environment.

Education

Stephen F. Austin State University, Nacogdoches, Texas
Bachelor of Arts in Sociology, May 2018
Cumulative GPA: 3.1

Work Experience

Activities Coordinator Volunteer January 2017 - Present
Lone Star Yogi, Nacogdoches, Texas

- Assist in organizing creative camp activities for visitors such as movie night, crafts, and mini golf
- Manage the safety of all individuals in different park facilities
- Address the questions and concerns of all park visitors while maintaining positive customer service

Native Plant Landscaper Volunteer August 2015 - December 2016
The Balcones Canyon Preserve, Austin, Texas

- Presented on environmental awareness for all age groups in order to better understand endangered species, native ecosystems, and land stewardship
- Received job specific training on Business Continuity Planning and plant identification and plant maintenance
- Participated in planting native trees and other vegetation in gardens and wilderness areas

Environmental Education Volunteer May 2013 - August 2015
Santa Anna Wildlife Refuge, Alamo, Texas

- Presented about the refuge to all age groups
- Conducted educational programs and tours for visitors
- Assisted with coordinating educational programs and activities at local schools, festivals, fairs, and special events

Leadership Experience

Coordinator
Environmental Awareness Movement, Stephen F. Austin State University

- Gathered 300 volunteers to assist in the up-keep of the city
- Presented monthly meetings promoting environmental awareness
- Coordinated 3+ city clean-ups a month