Dear Future Educator,

I am glad you have chosen to pursue your educator certification in the James I. Perkins College of Education at Stephen F. Austin State University. Since its inception, the Perkins College of Education has enjoyed a reputation for excellence in educator preparation. The Perkins College of Education was among the first to be accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), now the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP), in the 1950's and has been continuously accredited since that time.

Similarly, the Texas Education Agency has continuously approved programs in the college for educator certification. Our Educator Preparation Program is field-based, meaning you have the opportunity to practice the theories and teaching methods from your college classes in the public classrooms of our partner school districts. As you begin the clinical teaching semester, I encourage you to seek out every opportunity to strengthen the skills you have developed throughout your program, and to embrace the mentorship of those experienced educators on your campus.

You have chosen an exciting career, filled with both opportunities and challenges. This clinical teaching semester is just the beginning to what I hope is a long and fulfilling journey for you.

Congratulations on your decision to become a teacher. Make the most of this clinical teaching experience!

Best Wishes,

Understanding Clinical Teaching

Clinical Teaching is the culminating experience where pre-service teachers demonstrate their knowledge, skills, and dispositions related to educating pre-kindergarten through twelfth grade students. This is a time when clinical teachers demonstrate their commitment to the personal and professional qualities included in our College of Education Conceptual Framework. It is critical to view Clinical Teaching as an opportunity to grow as a professional. As guests in the public school systems, pre-service teachers demonstrate their knowledge of instruction and pedagogy as well as their commitment to serving all students while contributing to the learning community.

Pre-service teachers are assigned both a field supervisor, employed by SFA, and a cooperating teacher for each teaching assignment. Cooperating teachers are master teachers, employed by the school district, and are important components of this education experience. They provide models of effective practice, caring professionalism, and critical thinking. They are also resources, supports, and evaluators of the pre-service teachers.

The clinical teaching experience can be completed by:

- (1) A minimum of 14 weeks with a full day being 100% of the school day; or
- (2) A minimum of 28 weeks (no fewer than 140 half days) with a half day being 50% of the school day; or
- (3) Employed as an Educational Aide (see page 79) - A minimum of 14 weeks with a full day being 100% of the school day; or
- (4) Employed as an Educational Aide (see page 79) - A minimum of 28 weeks (no fewer than 140 half days) with a half day being 50% of the school day.

When not directly teaching, pre-service teachers should be assisting and observing in classes, with one period per day being reserved for preparation time.

Pre-Clinical Teaching Visit

Upon receipt of your Clinical Teaching placements, become acquainted with the school of your teaching placement(s). Research the school(s) on the Internet, learning as much about the campus, and educational programs as possible. Make note of questions you may have (i.e. where to park, if/where you sign in and out each day). Call the school and schedule a brief visit with the principal and cooperating teacher.

Once on campus, tour the building. Become familiar with important locations: office, first placement classroom, adult restrooms, etc. As a guest on campus, you are unfamiliar with campus policies and procedures. Ask if you may have or borrow a copy of the teacher and student handbooks. Study them!

Visit with your cooperating teacher. Maintain contact with your cooperating teacher by exchanging important contact information: telephone numbers, email addresses, etc. at your first meeting. After the campus visit, contact your field supervisor and let him/her know you have made your initial contacts and school visits.

Clinical Teaching Policies

The Professional Educators' Council has approved major policies guiding the Clinical Teaching experience(s) at SFASU. The policies as approved are shown below.

1. Coursework Taken During Clinical Teaching. A maximum of 12 hours can be taken during the clinical teaching semester. Additional hours must be approved by the clinical teacher's department chair/unit head. The department chair/unit head must notify the Office of Assessment and Accountability at edcertfield@sfasu.edu.
2. Extenuating Circumstances. Students who anticipate giving birth, having elective surgery, or other circumstances that require an extended period of absence are advised to enroll in clinical teaching at another time. Students with special circumstances related to clinical teaching should confer with the Associate Dean PRIOR to placement.
3. Out of State Clinical Teaching. Students who anticipate the need to clinical teach outside of the state of Texas must contact the Office of Assessment and Accountability at edcertfield@sfasu.edu one year prior to clinical teaching. Approval is determined by the Texas Education Agency not Stephen F. Austin State University. There is a $500
4. Professionalism. Clinical teachers adhere to ethical standards of the teaching profession as outlines in the Texas Administrative Code Educators' Code of Ethics, to SFA policies for university students, and to the policies of the school where they are assigned.
5. Corporal Punishment. Clinical teachers will not administer corporal punishment. If school personnel determine corporal punishment is necessary, a district employee, NOT the clinical teacher, must administer it.
6. Calendar. A semester calendar is provided with specific dates and responsibilities. Clinical teachers follow the assigned public school calendar, not the SFA calendar.
7. Field Supervisors. Field supervisor is defined as a certified educator, hired by the educator preparation program, who preferably has advanced credentials, to observe candidates, monitor his or her performance, and provides constructive feedback to improve his or her professional performance.
8. Cooperating Teachers. Cooperating teachers are selected by school district personnel to mentor clinical teachers using the following criteria:
 - At least three years successful teaching.

- Possesses a desire to work with clinical teachers.
 - Teaching assignment content area is in clinical teacher's certification area.
9. Clinical Teacher Responsibilities. Clinical teachers are expected to adhere to the roles and responsibilities described in this handbook.
10. Evaluation and Grading. Clinical Teacher evaluation is a cooperative task shared by the Clinical Teacher, the Field Supervisor, and the Cooperating Teacher/Mentor. Much of the evaluation by the Cooperating Teacher/Mentor is informal, and thus, the Clinical Teacher may gain direction for action from brief, daily evaluations. The Field Supervisor will complete four formal observations and three informal observations during the clinical teaching semester. TWO virtual formal observations and TWO virtual informal observations may be conducted through use of an unedited electronic transmission, video or technology-based method. The first informal observation must be conducted in-person. See the CT Due Dates and Requirements for each observation deadlines.

Each observation must meet the following requirements:

- Individualized pre-observation conference
 - Face-to-face is NOT required
 - No minimum duration required
 - Assessment must be completed in QClassroom for documentation purposes
- Formal Observation
 - Per TAC 228.35, formal observation due dates are NOT flexible
 - Must be 45 minutes in duration
 - Two observations cannot occur in one day
- Interactive post-conference
 - Face-to-face is NOT required
 - Conference must occur within 72 hours of the observation
 - No minimum duration required
 - Assessment must be completed in QClassroom for documentation purposes

NOTE: Initial contact with assigned candidate must occur within the first three weeks of assignment. Contact may be made by telephone, email or other electronic communication.

Per TAC 228.35(e)(2)(A)(iii), Clinical teaching is successful when the candidate demonstrates proficiency in each of the educator standards for the assignment and the field supervisor and cooperating teacher recommend to the EPP that the candidate should be recommended for a standard certificate. If either the field supervisor or cooperating teacher do not recommend that the candidate should be recommended for a standard certificate, the person who does not recommend the candidate must provide documentation supporting the lack of recommendation to the candidate and either the field supervisor or cooperating teacher.

- The final grade given for clinical teaching will be pass (P) or fail (F). See syllabus for requirements.
- Clinical teaching can only be repeated once.
- Course Evaluations – at the end of each semester, candidates will receive an automated email explaining that end of semester course evaluations are available in mySFA. Students are encouraged to complete the evaluation just as is done for other professors/ courses throughout the SFA career. Other required Clinical Teaching surveys will be completed through a QClassroom account as instructed in the online companion class taken with Clinical Teaching.

11. Candidate Intervention and Program Continuation Procedures. In the event the clinical teacher fails to meet expectations, the cooperating teacher and/or field supervisor have the authority and responsibility to discuss the clinical teacher's behavior with him/her. The cooperating teacher and field supervisor will use informal attempts to change behaviors that include but are not limited to the following: providing guidance, observation, anecdotal records, and meetings. Should informal attempts not result in improvement or a change in behavior then the field supervisor will follow the procedures outlined in the Professional Dispositions, Intervention, and Program Continuation Policy document.

Attendance Policies

1. Clinical teachers follow the same calendar, holidays, and daily schedule as the district/school to which they are assigned and they observe the local school's policy-governing teachers' daily arrival and departure times. They are required to be present each day of the Clinical Teaching assignment. Assignment dates are provided by the Clinical Teaching Coordinator prior to the beginning of placement.
2. In some instances, a clinical teacher may be expected to stay beyond normal departure times if the cooperating teacher has a professional assignment that extends beyond the normal school day. Approval for the release of a clinical teacher from attendance is the responsibility of the Office of Assessment and Accountability, NOT the cooperating teacher or the field supervisor.
3. Absences are to be requested and reported as soon as possible to the cooperating teacher and field supervisor. Each absence requires proper documentation within the QClassroom Time Log. There is a time log kept, and the absence and hours missed must be noted within that log.
4. PRIOR TO an absence, the cooperating teacher AND field supervisor are to be notified. Please check with the cooperating and field supervisor to know their expectations. In extreme cases, the Associate Dean of Assessment and Accountability may be consulted. Failure to attend the Clinical Teaching Orientation will result in an initial documented absence.
5. Clinical teachers attend school every day.
6. Leaving the school campus during the school day without prior permission from both your Cooperating Teacher and Field Supervisor is unacceptable.
7. Clinical teachers are required to report to their placement assignment dates as outlined in the placement document provided by the Clinical Coordinator. Any absences exceeding two days as per the syllabus will result in failing clinical teaching.

Substitute Teaching

With the approval of Senate Bill 1, each teacher preparation program is permitted to determine its own policy regarding clinical teachers serving as substitute teachers. SFASU's policy is outlined below:

- Clinical teachers may serve as substitute teachers only after successfully completing 6 weeks of clinical teaching.
- A clinical teacher is not considered to be serving as a substitute if the clinical teacher assumes responsibility for the class while the cooperating teacher is out of the classroom for a part of the day, is in the building, or is engaged in an approved activity relating to clinical teaching OR if there is a paid substitute in the classroom. A clinical teacher is considered to be serving as a substitute when the cooperating teacher is absent from school and no paid personnel is in the classroom with the clinical teacher.
- A clinical teacher may be used as a substitute only if he/she is willing to do so and if the cooperating teacher and field supervisor recommends him/her for substituting.
- A certified classroom teacher must be in an adjacent room and agree to assist the clinical teacher if needed.
- The principal of the school or the principal's representative must be readily available in the building, must take responsibility for monitoring the clinical teacher when he/she is substituting, and must be available as a resource for discipline problems.
- Clinical teachers may substitute for a maximum of five days: two days unpaid, and three days paid, as approved by the district. It is the student's responsibility to fill out the appropriate paperwork in the school district's Human Resources Department for the clinical teacher to receive pay.
- If the district requires substitute teachers to attend district training, the clinical teacher IS NOT excused from his or her clinical teaching assignment to attend the training. When the clinical teacher agrees to attend district substitute teacher training, he or she MUST make up the missed day, regardless of the number of absences up to that time.

- Clinical teachers who serve as substitutes will be paid at the same rate paid as other district substitutes and the substitute's schedule must include a lunch period and a conference period.
- Clinical teachers who substitute must abide by all district guidelines for substitute teachers.
- The Office of Assessment and Accountability must approve any exceptions to this policy in advance.

Clinical Teaching Expectations

Successful clinical teachers are professional in their relationships with students, administrators, supervisors, other teachers, and the support staff. They abide by the Texas Educators' Code of Ethics and exhibit the following behaviors as they assume their responsibilities:

- Conduct themselves in a way that reflects maturity, good judgment, diplomacy and a high ethical standard.
- Develop and nurture appropriate relationships with students.
- Maintain confidentiality regarding all information concerning students.
- Adhere to all local school policies while assigned to the school district.
- Exhibit appropriate professional appearance based on good grooming and appropriateness for the teaching assignment. All school districts have expectations for teacher dress and have established dress codes, either written or expressed. Professional dress communicates respect for the role of the teacher, students, and education.

Clinical teachers continue to develop their professional career. The SFA model for Clinical Teaching is one of observation, practice, and professionalism. Clinical teachers begin their experience with confidence built from their knowledge, sound general education, and area of specialization; their many hands-on experiences during laboratory assignments and internships; and a foundation of professional practice provided during SFA's quality education courses and field experiences. These clinical teachers understand the Clinical Teaching experience represents a partnership among professionals committed to success in teaching and learning.

Clinical teachers shadow the teacher, assuming his/her professional duties over time. They follow school routines such as signing in and out each day in the designated location, typically the office. If the teacher has early morning duty, so does the clinical teacher. If the teacher has afternoon bus duty, so does the clinical teacher. When the teacher is expected to be in a meeting, and it is deemed appropriate, the clinical teacher must be in attendance.

On campus and off, the clinical teacher is to display a positive disposition toward children and colleagues. Professionalism should be visible in all actions of the clinical teacher, both on and off campus.

The clinical teacher works with the cooperating teacher to determine which lessons will be taught by the clinical teacher.

Beginning with observation the clinical teacher moves toward limited teaching, with gradual assumption of all teaching responsibilities. Eventually, he/she assumes full classroom responsibilities (See Appendix A, B and C).

The cooperating teacher determines the major objectives for lessons, and he/she monitors the clinical teacher's development of the lessons. Each clinical teacher assumes full responsibility in planning lessons to achieve TEKS. Cooperating teachers retain a copy of all lesson plans. Planning is done in close cooperation with the cooperating teacher and may include the field supervisor. The cooperating teacher approves all lesson plans, assessments, guest speakers, field trips, and grades prior to implementation.

Clinical Teaching Frequently Asked Questions

Question: What does Clinical Teaching Involve?

Answer: During your Clinical Teaching semester, you will report to your assigned public school with your assigned cooperating teacher as if you were the teacher of that classroom. Clinical Teaching courses do not meet on the SFA campus.

Question: What is the time commitment with Clinical Teaching?

Answer: Although Clinical Teaching is 6-9 credit hours, you should consider yourself a full-time student because you are expected to be on your assigned campus all day, five days a week.

While on a field campus in a school district, you are required to keep the contract hours for all employed teachers on that campus. You may need to stay after school to prepare lessons you will be teaching, attend meetings or attend school-sponsored functions.

Question: Can I take other classes while in Clinical Teaching?

Answer: You cannot take courses during the school day. You may be permitted to take online or campus coursework in conjunction with Clinical Teaching hours, if it does not interfere with your assigned Clinical Teaching hours. A maximum of 12 hours may be taken during the clinical teaching semester.

Question: When does the Clinical Teacher's day begin and end?

Answer: As a Clinical Teacher, you should report to your campus when your cooperating teacher is required to report to their campus and you may not leave until your cooperating teacher's teaching day is complete. It is suggested that clinical teachers should mirror their cooperating teacher's arrival and departure time.

Question: Whose holiday schedules do I follow, the university or the school district?

Answer: Clinical Teachers follow the Holiday schedule that the school district follows. The university sets your beginning and ending day of Clinical Teaching.

Question: Am I required to attend Staff Development Days?

Answer: Yes, you are required to attend all school district staff development days.

Question: What is the absence policy during Clinical Teaching?

Answer: Clinical Teachers are expected to be present every day of Clinical Teaching. In the case of a serious illness or emergency, the Clinical Teacher should notify his/her cooperating teacher and the university supervisor no later than 7:00a.m., on the morning of the absence. Unless approved by the university supervisor, the Office of Assessment and Accountability and the host school administration, any absence from Clinical Teaching will need to be made up. You must log all absences within your QClassroom time log in QClassroom. See the attendance policy.

Certification Information

At Stephen F. Austin State University, the preparation of teachers and other educational leaders is considered the task of the entire university. The Professional Educators' Council (composed of faculty and administrators from each college with teaching concentrations) develops policy for the programs.

The Educator Preparation Program is standard-based, learner-centered, and delivered in a collaborative, field-based environment. Technology skills and responsiveness to diversity are integral parts of the programs. As with all teacher preparation in Texas, each program completer has an academic specialization and a common core curriculum as a basis for the professional education sequence. Assessment is benchmarked throughout the program.

Recommendation for certification is made by SFA to the State Board for Educator Certification (SBEC) when the program, including successful TExES testing in teaching fields and pedagogy, is completed.

Students in the various programs have a sequence of field experiences that are delivered in collaboration with partners in the public schools. Multiple schools in the East Texas area serve as sites for early field experiences for undergraduate students. Multiple school districts in East Texas, the Houston area, and the Dallas metropolis offer sites for Clinical Teaching.

- TExES (Texas Examinations for Education Standards)
- TASC (Texas Assessment of Sign Communication)
- AAFCS (the tests for Human Sciences/Home Economics teaching fields)

Educator Preparation Program Candidate Exit Survey

Section I: Introduction

Educators:

As a result of the 81st legislative session and the issuance of Senate Bill 174, the Texas Education Agency is required to collect data through the distribution of a survey to all individuals who have completed an educator preparation program. The purpose of this survey, initiated by the Texas Education Agency, is to evaluate the effectiveness of educator preparation programs, in accordance with the requirements of Senate Bill 174. We are interested in learning about the level of preparation you received from your educator preparation program upon completion. This information will be used to promote the preparation of effective teachers and, ultimately, Texas students.

Please provide feedback regarding how well you were prepared by your educator preparation programs to be successful in the classroom.

Most of the questions are Likert-type, and the survey should only take 15 minutes to complete. Information from the survey will be provided to TEA in aggregate; no individual names will be connected with the information provided to us.

Definitions to some survey question text can be displayed by hovering your mouse over the word.

If you have any questions about the purpose of this survey, you may email:

Manager, Educator Preparation
Texas Education Agency
edstandards@tea.state.tx.us

If you have any problems accessing or submitting this survey, please email:

Office of Assessment and Accountability
Professional Dispositions, Intervention, and Program Continuation Policy

The Perkins College of Education Educator Preparation Program (EPP) is responsible for preparing candidates who have the required knowledge, skills, and professional dispositions to become effective educators. Educator preparation providers establish and monitor attributes and dispositions beyond academic ability that candidates must demonstrate at admissions and during the program (CAEP Standard 3.3, 2016).

Prior to admission to the EPP, during coursework, and in campus and field experiences, faculty will assess the candidate's demonstration of these professional dispositions and provide feedback to facilitate progress.

Within any education or major area course, should a candidate demonstrate unsatisfactory professional dispositions, the following procedure will be followed:

1. Faculty members work with all candidates using informal attempts to change behaviors that include but are not limited to the following: providing guidance, observation, anecdotal records, differentiated instruction, and meetings with the student.
2. If the concern is not resolved, the candidate will be referred to the Departmental Program Continuation Review Panel. The Departmental Program Continuation Review Panel is comprised of the Department Chair, the Program Coordinator, and faculty appointed by the Department Chair, including but not limited to the faculty member reporting the unsatisfactory dispositions. This panel will interview the candidate and complete a Candidate Program Continuation Plan.
3. If the concern is not resolved, the candidate will be referred to the Professional Educators' Program Continuation Review Panel. This panel is comprised of at least three members from the Professional Educators' Council, including but not limited to the Associate Dean of Student and Faculty Affairs and faculty members with at least one representative from the student's program and at least one representative from an outside department. The Professional Educators' Program Continuation Review Panel will interview the candidate and determine:
 - a. If the candidate may continue in the program and meet conditions established by the panel, or
 - b. The candidate has not demonstrated satisfactory improvement in accordance with the Candidate Program Continuation Plan and is removed from the Educator Certification Program.

4. Candidates may appeal the decision of the Professional Educators' Program Continuation Review Panel to the Dean of the College of Education within five class days. The following documentation is required:

- a. Copy of Candidate Program Continuation Plan
- b. Formal letter with supporting evidence as to why the candidate should not be removed for the Educator Certification Program.
- c. The dean will respond in a timely manner.
- d. Any further appeal will follow policy A-2: Academic Appeal and begin at step4.

For instances where the educational learning environment is threatened, the candidate may be removed from the classroom pending prompt review by the Professional Educators' Program Continuation Review Panel. (Policy D34: Student Discipline)

Criminal Background Check, Preliminary Criminal History Evaluation, Fingerprinting

Notification to All EPP Applicants and Enrollees

TAC 227.1(d)

EPPs shall notify, in writing by mail, personal delivery, facsimile, email, or an electronic notification, each applicant to and enrollee in the EPP of the following regardless of whether the applicant or enrollee has been convicted of an offense:

- (1) the potential ineligibility of an individual who has been convicted of an offense for issuance of a certificate on completion of the EPP;
- (2) the current State Board for Educator Certification (SBEC) rules prescribed in §249.16 of this title (relating to Eligibility of Persons with Criminal History for a Certificate under Texas Occupations Code, Chapter 53, and Texas Education Code, Chapter 21); and
- (3) the right to request a criminal history evaluation letter as provided in Chapter 227, Subchapter B, of this title (relating to Preliminary Evaluation of Certification Eligibility).

Additional information regarding background checks, fingerprinting and an optional preliminary criminal history evaluation can be found at Admission | Educator Preparation Program | College of Education | SFA \(sfasu.edu\)

Candidates must undergo a criminal history background check prior to clinical teaching and prior to employment as an educator. The public school campuses are responsible for completing the criminal background check. A person who is enrolled or planning to enroll in a State Board for Educator Certification-approved educator preparation program or planning to take a certification examination may request a preliminary criminal history evaluation letter regarding the person's potential ineligibility for certification due to a conviction or deferred adjudication for a felony or misdemeanor offense.

A Preliminary Criminal History Evaluation is a non-mandatory, non-binding evaluation of an individual's self-reported criminal history. In addition, the agency obtains your name-based Texas criminal history information. The service is provided to the requestor for a non-refundable fee. The requestor will receive an evaluation letter by email from agency staff advising of potential ineligibility for educator certification.

You are eligible to request a Preliminary Criminal History Evaluation if:

- You enrolled or planning to enroll in an educator preparation program or
- You are planning to take a certification exam for initial educator certification, and
- You have reason to believe that you may be ineligible for educator certification due to a conviction or deferred adjudication for a felony or misdemeanor offense.

You are not eligible for a preliminary evaluation of your criminal history if you do not have a conviction or deferred adjudication for a felony or misdemeanor offense.

In addition, you must complete the fingerprinting process when you apply for certification. Participation in the evaluation does not preclude you from submitting to a national criminal history review at the time you apply for your educator certification. Your criminal history will be reviewed and you may be subject to an investigation based on that criminal history, including any information you failed to submit for evaluation.
