

Rachel Jumper

human development & family studies

Sarah Straub

education studies

Caring for Students through a Redeveloped Communication Plan

Dr. Rachel Jumper, Human Development and Family Studies
Dr. Sarah Straub, Education Studies

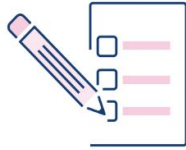

Agenda

- Overview of Digital Learning Equity Analysis Project
 - Communication Plan Suggestions
 - What's Next?
-

The Digital Learning Equity Analysis Project

1 Reimagine Your Syllabus Content

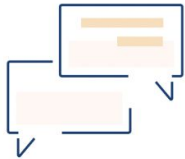

2 Review and Revise Your Course Content

3 Assess Your Students With Care

4 Develop and Enact a Communication Plan

5 Integrate Institutional Supports

6 Take Time for Self-Care

Communications Plan Driving Questions

DRIVING QUESTIONS

As you review the recommendations within this section, we invite you to consider the following key reflection questions and use the answers to help develop a concrete road map of actions to take right away, in the near future, and as an ongoing practice:

- What instructional strategies will foster instructor presence in my course?
- How can I leverage technology to communicate with learners throughout the semester?
- What types of activities will help me create and sustain a learning community?

Top Suggestions

- Establish Instructor Presence
 - Getting to Know You Survey
 - Welcome Video
 - Office Hours
- Building a Learning Community
 - Community-Building Activities
- Leveraging Technology to Communicate with Care
 - Weekly Announcements
 - Modular Overviews
- Special Considerations for Synchronous Courses
 - Let your students know you're recording BEFORE you record
 - Conversations about Camera Requirements
 - Having alternate work planned for students who cannot attend

11 AM

Send Amanda H Birthday Message (MLGE 4230)

Send Ashlee a Wedding Guest Email (MLGE 4230)

12 PM

Week 5 Sp 23 HJSC 5300

Rachel Amper posted on Feb 6, 2023 8:00 AM • Edit

Hi Everyone,

Welcome to Week 5 of the course! This week you will be completing Module 5: Introduction to Human Sciences which will help set the stage for your major paper for the course. This week you will have multiple readings for the course (Readings #6-11) and book chapters (13-15) so get started early. In this module we review the history of Human Sciences as a field of study and you should start to think about why our major is human sciences and how all the concentration areas connect to each other. You should complete the Intro to Human Sciences Discussion Article Reaction Paper #2 by Sunday at 11:59 PM CST.

Upcoming Due dates:

Module 5: Introduction to Human Sciences - Assignments Due February 19th
Human Sciences Discussion
Reaction Paper #2

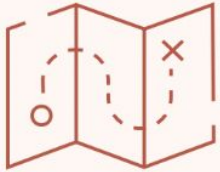

Module 6: Research in the Field of HMS - Assignments Due February 19th
Research Discussion
APA Activity #3

What's Next?

ACTION ROAD MAP

The following steps can be taken to develop a communication plan that emphasizes authenticity and engagement:

NOW

Create or revise your course welcome video to help students get to know you better.

NEXT

Build new activities or assignments into your course that will increase social presence in the classroom.

LATER

Build a comprehensive plan for communication in your course that positions students within a community of inquiry.