

Nepotism

Original Implementation: Unpublished

Last Revision: April 20, 2021

Purpose

This policy explains nepotism and the related employment requirements for employees of Stephen F. Austin State University.

Definitions

Nepotism involves showing favor to relatives when hiring or promoting or making decisions about salary or supervision. For this policy, the term relative shall mean those individuals within the second degree of affinity (marriage) or third degree of consanguinity (blood), defined in Appendix A. An adopted child is treated as the natural child of the adoptive parents.

General

The rules concerning nepotism apply to all employees of the university including students, whether employed full or part-time. Employees are required to annually disclose, in a manner determined by the university, the existence of any relationship that may be or cause a violation of this policy.

A university employee may not hire, appoint, or confirm the appointment of a relative for a university position of employment or take any action with regard to the relative's promotion, salary or supervision. If an appointment, reappointment, reclassification, promotion or other action places a person under the supervision of a relative, all subsequent actions with regard to the terms and conditions of employment, including the annual performance evaluation, is the responsibility of the next highest administrative supervisor. This shall further apply in situations where two employees marry and one spouse is the administrative supervisor of the other.

No relative of a member of the board of regents may be employed for any position with the university. However, an exception to this rule will be made in cases where the relative has been continuously employed in the position for a period of thirty (30) days prior to the appointment of the related regent. When a relative is allowed to continue in a position because of the operation of this exception, the regent who is related to such person in the prohibited degree shall not participate in the deliberation or voting upon the appointment, reappointment, employment, confirmation, reemployment, change in status, compensation, or dismissal of the relative, if such action applies only to the relative and is not taken with respect to a bona fide class or category of employees.

An individual who violates this policy may be subject to criminal penalties and/or dismissal from employment.
