

Auditing a Course - Tuition and Fees

Original Implementation: October 18, 1980

Last Revision: July 27, 2021

Purpose

This policy establishes guidelines for tuition and fees related to auditing a course.

Definition

Auditing a course allows a student to take a class without the benefit of a grade or credit for that course.

General

Tuition and fees for auditing a course shall be the same as tuition and fees paid by regularly enrolled students. Generally, financial aid (including exemptions and waivers) cannot be applied to the charges related to auditing a course, unless specifically allowed under the terms of a scholarship or grant.
