

Graduate Student Advising

Original Implementation: October 31, 2000

Last Revision: October 28, 2019

Academic units must provide effective academic advising for students enrolled in their graduate programs and must assign each student a graduate faculty member to serve as the academic advisor. The unit must provide students with information as to departmental/school/office organization, administration, key personnel, facilities, degree requirements, and procedures.

The academic advisor informs advisees of university resources, guidelines, procedures, policies, and graduate student rights and responsibilities. Advising topics include, but are not limited to, registration process, degree requirements, proper sequencing of courses, thesis/non-thesis options, time limits for completion of program, and comprehensive examination expectations.

All graduate student advising programs must be evaluated as part of the annual program assessment report, including information on how assessment results will be used.
