To be eligible for the Overlap Program, a student must be enrolled at SFASU and must have achieved at least ninety-five (95) semester hours of undergraduate credit. A student with fewer than one hundred and ten (110) hours of undergraduate credit must present 3.0 GPA both overall and in the major field. A student with one hundred and ten (110) hours or more of undergraduate credit, however may be admitted to the Overlap Program by presenting a 2.5 GPA overall and a 2.8 GPA in the major field.

Any student admitted to the Overlap Program must reapply for full graduate admission when the undergraduate degree is completed. When this form has been completed and all approval signatures obtained, the student should bring this form to the Graduate Office. The student must apply to the graduate school for admission at www.sfasu.edu/apply
