abbreviations
Do not use abbreviations the reader would not quickly recognize, except in special publications and sports schedules that call for abbreviated months/dates. A few universally recognized abbreviations are required in some circumstances; but in general, avoid alphabet soup. See addresses, months and states for exceptions.

academic degrees
Lowercase and use an apostrophe in nonspecific uses: He has a bachelor's degree in journalism, or She has a master's degree.
Capitalize degree name in specific uses, with emphasis areas lowercased unless a proper noun: He has a Bachelor of Arts in journalism, or They have a Master of Arts in English.
Lowercase doctor's, doctorate and doctoral. SFA has awarded 1,182 bachelor's, 678 master's and 76 doctoral degrees.
There is no apostrophe in associate degree. She has an associate degree in art.
When referencing degree acronyms, do not use periods. She received a BA and MBA.

academic majors, programs
Lowercase academic majors and programs except proper nouns: history, English, aviation sciences program, Bachelor of Arts in psychology.

academic titles
See titles.

accessible language
Use language like accessible rather than handicap, handicapped or disabled. Use accessible parking rather than handicap parking.

acknowledgment

acronyms
Avoid them. A few universally recognized abbreviations are necessary in some circumstances. Do not use for college or department names.
Commonly used acronyms: CEO, SFA, FBI, CIA, ABC, CBS, NBC, FOX. Do not follow an organization’s full name with an abbreviation or acronym in parentheses or set off by dashes.
If an abbreviation or acronym would not be clear on second reference without this arrangement, DO NOT USE IT.

addresses
Keep address style consistent with postal regulations.
Stephen F. Austin State University University Marketing Communications
P.O. Box 6100, SFA Station
Nacogdoches, Texas 75962
For street addresses that include a number, use appropriate street abbreviations: Ave., Blvd., St.
Alley, drive, road, terrace and other similar synonyms are not abbreviated. On formal invitations, street addresses may be spelled out if space allows.

Stephen F. Austin State University must go on top line in all return addresses.
Do not use ZIP +4 numbers for SFA Station addresses.

affect vs. effect
Affect, as a verb, means to influence: The final exam will affect his final grade.
Effect, as a noun, means result: The effect of the Hopwood decision on minority enrollment is substantial.
Effect, as a verb, means to cause or bring about: The new athletics director will effect many positive changes in the department.

afterward
Not afterwards.

ages
Always use figures. When the context does not require year or years old, the figure is presumed to be years.
Ages expressed as adjectives before a noun or as substitutes for a noun use hyphens:
Examples: A 5-year-old boy; The boy is 5 years old. The boy, 7, has a sister, 10. The woman, 26, has a daughter 2 months old. The law is 8 years old. The race is for 3-year-olds. The woman is in her 30s (no apostrophe).

all right
Two words. Never alright.

alma mater

alumni
Alumni is used for both male and female (plural) graduates. Alumnus is used for a single male graduate, alumna is used for a single female graduate and alumnae is used for plural female graduates. SFA avoids gendered nouns unless necessary.

a.m. or p.m.
Lowercase with periods. Avoid redundant usage: 8 a.m. this morning. See also TDP.

among, between
Use between when introducing two items and among when introducing more than two. It’s between you and me, but The vote was divided among several candidates.
However, between is the correct word when expressing the relationships of three or more items considered one pair at a time. Negotiations on a debate format are underway between the network and the Ford, Carter, and McCarthy committees.

ampersand (&)
Use the ampersand when it is part of a company’s formal name or composition title: House & Garden, Procter & Gamble, Wheeling & Lake Erie Railway.
The ampersand should not otherwise be used in place of and. Always spell out in narrative copy.

any more, anymore
When used as two words, any more refers to quantity: I don’t want any more cake.
When used as one word, the adverb anymore refers to time: I don’t feel like going to the party anymore.
apposition
If clause is restrictive, meaning that it is necessary to understand the meaning of the sentence, then commas are omitted. Computer scientist Margaret Dunham wants to know how an individual can effectively use a laptop to retrieve data. Put commas around an identification (appositive) that follows a name: R. Gerald Turner, president of the university, spoke to the group of underclassmen; or His wife, Gail, had lunch with an alumni group. But John and his daughter Christine went to the mall together; restrictive clause because John has more than one daughter.

apostrophe
For the many, varied uses of the apostrophe, see the comprehensive entry within the punctuation section in The AP Stylebook.
No apostrophe for a word ending in “s” being used primarily in a descriptive way: a Reds infielder, a teachers college, a writers guide. Memory aid: The apostrophe usually isn’t used if “for” or “by” would be in the longer form: a college for teachers, a trade by the Reds.

areas of study
See majors entry.

assure
See the ensure, insure, assure entry.

athletics
Write the Department of Athletics at SFA; however, the director of athletics or SFA’s Department of Athletics.

Axe ‘em, Jacks!
Please note the direction of the apostrophe before “em” and the space before Jacks.

baccalaureate Never baccalaureate degree.

barbecue
Not barbeque, Bar-B-Q, B-B-Q or any other concoction.

baseball terminology
Left hander or right hander; shutout (n.) or shut out (v.)

Battle of the Piney Woods

because, since
Use because to denote a specific cause-effect relationship: Because he was 12 years old, he got in at children’s prices. Since is acceptable in a causal sense when the first event in a sequence led logically to the second but was not its direct cause. Since 1923, students have attended SFA.

bi-
The rules in prefixes apply, but in general, no hyphen.
Some examples: bifocal, bilateral, bipartisan, bilingual, bimonthly, biweekly, biannual. (See entry in The AP Stylebook.)

biannual, biennial
Biannual means twice a year, synonymous with semiannual. Biennial means every two years.

Bible
Capitalize, without quotation marks when referring to the Scriptures in the Old Testament or the New Testament. Also, capitalize related terms, such as the Gospels, Gospel of St. Mark, the Scriptures, the Holy Scriptures. However, lowercase biblical in all uses. Also, lowercase bible as a nonreligious term: The SFA Stylebook is my bible. Do not abbreviate individual books of the Bible.

bimonthly
Every other month. Semiweekly means twice a month.

biweekly
Every other week. Semiweekly means twice a week.

board of regents
References to SFA’s board of regents are in lowercase: He is on the board of regents or She is a member of SFA’s board of regents. Regent is capitalized when used before a name: Regent Karen Gantt.

book titles
See Composition Titles (The AP Stylebook).

CD
Abbreviation for compact disk. Acceptable in all references.

call letters (radio and television)
Use all caps. Use hyphens to separate the type of station from the basic call letters: WKRPM-AM, KPLX-FM, WFAA-TV, KERA-Channel 13.

campaign
Uppercase only when referring to an SFA capital campaign.

campuswide

cancel, canceled, canceling, cancellation

capital vs. capitol
Capital is the city where a seat of government is located. Do not capitalize: Austin is the state capital.

When used in a financial sense, capital describes money, equipment/property used in a business by a person or corporation.

Capitol describes the actual building where a seat of government is located. Capitalize U.S. Capitol and the Capitol when referring to the building in Washington: The meeting was held on Capitol Hill in the west wing of the Capitol. Do not write the Capitol Building; that is redundant.

Follow the same practice when referring to state capitols:
Texas pink granite was used in the construction of the Capitol of Texas. The State Capitol is on Congress Avenue.

capitalization
Official names are capitalized; unofficial, informal, shortened or generic names are not.

Avoid using ALL CAPS in headlines or text. The Rusche College of Business, the business college; the College of Education, the education college.

Center for Career and Professional Development (SR: CCPD)

century
Lowercase, spelling out numbers less than 10: the first century, the 21st century. For proper names, follow the organization’s practice: 21st Century Fox, Twentieth Century Fund. Hyphenate when used as an adjectival: 18th-century literature.

chair
Use the nongendered chair — not chairman or chairwoman — for SFA board members and department heads. Follow the corporation’s nomenclature for positions outside of SFA; W.R. Howell, retired chairman, J.C. Penney Co. Inc.

Chartwells
SFA’s food service provider.

church
Capitalize as part of the formal name of a building, a congregation or a denomination, but lowercase in other uses: Highland Park United Methodist Church and the Roman Catholic Church, but a Methodist church, a Baptist church.

cities

Capitalize city if part of a proper name, an integral part of an official name, or a regularly used nickname: Kansas City, New York City, Windy City, City of Light, Fun City.

Lowercase elsewhere: a Texas city, the city government; the city Board of Education; and all city of phrases: the city of Nacogdoches.

Capitalize when part of a formal title before a name: City Manager Francis McGrath. Lowercase when not part of the formal title: city Health Commissioner Frank Smith.

co-
Retain the hyphen when forming nouns, adjectives and verbs that indicate occupation or status: co-author, co-chair, co-defendant, co-host, co-owner, co-pilot, co-signer, co-star, co-worker, co-sponsor, co-chair and co-op.

Do not use a hyphen in other combinations: coed, coeducation, coequal, coexist, cooperate, cooperative and coordinate.

collective nouns
Nouns that denote a unit take singular verbs and pronouns:
class, committee, crowd, faculty, family, group, herd, jury, orchestra and team. For example: The committee is meeting to set its agenda. The faculty at SFA is one of the best in the nation. The jury has reached its verdict. A herd of cattle was taken to market. Central University Libraries seeks funds to expand its collection.

Team and musical group names, whether plural or singular, take plural nouns.

colleges
Use the full college name on first reference. The names of the six colleges at SFA are:
1. Arthur Temple College of Forestry and Agriculture (SR: College of Forestry and Agriculture or ATCOFA)
2. Micky Elliott College of Fine Arts (SR: Elliott College of Fine Arts or ECFA)
3. College of Liberal and Applied Arts
4. College of Sciences and Mathematics
5. James I. Perkins College of Education (SR: Perkins College of Education or PCOE)
6. Rusche College of Business
7. When listing the academic areas within a college, name any schools first: the School of Human Sciences and the departments of education studies, human sciences, human services and educational leadership, and kinesiology and health science.

SFA should be listed before college name on first reference.

colons
See entry in the punctuation section in The AP Stylebook.

Use commas to separate elements in a series, but do not put a comma before the conjunction in a simple series: The flag is red, white and blue. He would nominate Tom, Dick or Harry.

However, put a comma before the concluding conjunction in a series if an integral element of the series requires a conjunction.
I had orange juice, toast, and ham and eggs for breakfast.

A comma is used before the concluding conjunction in a complex series of phrases: The main points to consider are whether the athletes are skillful enough to compete, whether they have the stamina to endure the training, and whether they have the appropriate mental attitude.

company names

Do not abbreviate except in special publications or when the company name is abbreviated in its own title: Texas Instruments Inc., Trammell Crow Company, IBM Corporation. Do not punctuate with a comma before Inc. SFA board member Kenneth James is chairman of Latrelle Group Inc.

complement vs. compliment

Complement is a noun and a verb denoting completeness or the process of supplementing something: The ship has a complement of 444 sailors and 44 officers, or The tie complements the suit.

Compliment is a noun or verb that denotes praise or the expression of courtesy: The captain complimented the sailors on their fine work, or She was flattered by the compliments on her new outfit.

complementary vs. complimentary

The husband and wife have complementary careers, but They received complimentary tickets to the baseball game.

compose, comprise, constitute

Compose means to create or put together. It commonly is used in both the active and passive voices: She composed a song. The United States is composed of 50 states. The zoo is composed of many animals.

Comprise means to contain, to include all or embrace. It is best used only in the active voice, followed by a direct object: The United States comprises 50 states. The jury comprises five men and seven women. The zoo comprises many animals. In general, the whole comprises the parts. When the sentence starts with the larger item, use comprise. Never use: ...is comprised of...

Constitute, in the sense of form or make up, may be the best word if neither compose nor comprise seem to fit: Fifty states constitute the United States. Five men and seven women constitute the jury. A collection of animals can constitute a zoo.

Use include when what follows is only part of the total: The price includes breakfast. The zoo includes lions and tigers.

Apply the guidelines listed here to titles of books, computer games, movies, operas, plays, poems, albums and songs, and television and radio programs, as well as lectures, speeches and works of art. The guidelines, followed by a block of examples:

* Do not use quotes or italics for magazine or newspaper titles.
* Capitalize the principal words, including prepositions and conjunctions of four or more letters.
* Capitalize an article — the, a, an — or words of fewer than four letters if it is the first or last word in a title.

Congress, congressional Capitalize U.S. Congress and Congress when referring to the U.S. Senate and the U.S. House of Representatives. Although Congress sometimes is used as a substitute for the House, it properly is reserved for reference to both the Senate and House.

Also, capitalize Congress if referring to a foreign body that uses the term or its equivalent in a foreign language as part of its formal name: The Argentine Congress, the Congress.

Lowercase congressional unless it’s part of a proper name: congressional salaries, the Congressional Quarterly, the Congressional Record.

connote vs. denote

Connote means to suggest or imply something beyond the explicit meaning: To some people, the word “marriage” connotes too much restriction.

Denote means to be explicit about the meaning: The word “demolish” denotes destruction.

continual vs. continuous

Continual means a steady repetition, over and over again: The merger has been a source of continual litigation.

Continuous means uninterrupted, steady, unbroken: All she saw ahead of her was a continuous stretch of road.

council, counselor

A council is a deliberative body, and council members are those who belong to them.

To counsel is to advise, hence a counselor is one who advises, such as a guidance counselor or an admission counselor, counselor at law.

couple of

The of is necessary; never use a couple tomatoes or a similar phrase. The phrase takes a plural verb in constructions, such as: A couple of apples were eaten.

course numbers

Use Arabic numerals and capitalize the subject when used with a numeral: Philosophy 2306. Capitalize but do not use italics or quotation marks.

course titles

Put course titles in quotation marks if used in a story: Students in Management 2035 “Management and Productivity Systems” hosted a...

course load

Two words.

coursework

One word.

court names

Capitalize the full proper names of courts at all levels. Retain capitalization if U.S. or a state name is dropped: the U.S. Supreme Court, the Supreme Court, the State Superior Court, the Superior Court.

For courts identified by a numeral: 2nd District Court, 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.
courtesy titles
In general, do not use the courtesy titles Miss, Mr., Mrs. or Ms. on first and last names of the person: Joe Jones, Emily Smith. Exceptions on second reference when dictated by culture, including when used in direct quotes. Exceptions are made on second reference in development publications, such as the Campaign Newsletter.

curriculum, curricula Curriculum is the singular form. Curricula is the plural form.

cyber security
In contrast to AP, cyber security is always two words when referring to the SFA program/degree.

data
A plural noun, it usually takes plural verbs and pronouns: These data are inconclusive. Singular is datum.

database
One word.

Use Arabic figures, without st, nd, rd or th. For example: Their anniversary is March 20.
When a month is used with a specific date, abbreviate only Jan., Feb., Aug., Sept., Oct., Nov. and Dec. Spell out when using alone, with a year alone, or when the month is the first word of the sentence.
When a phrase lists only a month and a year, do not separate the year with commas. When a phrase refers to a month, day and year, however, set off the year with commas: January 1972 was a cold month. Jan. 2 was the coldest day of the month. He was born March 3, 1944, in Michigan. He was born Jan. 3, 1994, in Texas.
It is preferred that “on” not be used before dates: The bust was dedicated Sept. 11, not The bust was dedicated on Sept. 11.

See titles.

dean’s list
Lowercase in all uses: He is on the dean’s list. She is a dean’s list student.

degrees
See academic degrees.

department
Capitalize when referring to a specific academic department, no matter the order of the sentence: the Department of Communication. However, lowercase when using a form other than the proper name or when plural. The Anthropology and Biological Sciences departments are sponsoring a forum this afternoon. The chair of the communication department will attend.

department/offices/divisions/schools official names
See Pages 18-19

dimensions
Use figures and spell out inches, feet, yards, etc., to indicate depth, height, length and width. Hyphenate adjectival forms before nouns. For example: He is 5 feet 10 inches tall, the 5-foot-10-inch man, the 6-foot man, the basketball team signed a 7-footer. And, The car is 16 feet long, 6 feet wide and 5 feet high. The rug is 9 feet by 12 feet, the 9-by-12 rug. The storm left 5 inches of snow.
directions and regions
In general, lowercase north, south, east, west, northeast, northern, etc., when they indicate compass direction. However, capitalize when they designate regions: He drove north toward home. He lives in the North; or A storm system that developed in the Midwest is spreading eastward. It will bring showers to the East Coast by morning and to the entire Northeast by late in the day. She was born in the East End of London. Capitalize when used to denote widely known sections: West Texas, Northern and Southern California, South Florida, the South Side of Chicago, the Lower East Side of New York, Far North Dallas, Northern New Mexico. If in doubt, lowercase.
With names of nations, lowercase unless they are part of a proper name or are used to designate a politically divided nation: northern France, eastern Canada, the western United States, but Northern Ireland, South Korea, South Africa, Southwestern America offers a splendid laboratory for interdisciplinary studies.
discreet vs. discrete Discreet means prudent, circumspect: “I’m afraid I was not very discreet,” she wrote.
Discrete means detached, separate: There are four discrete sounds produced by a quadraphonic system.
disinterested vs. uninterested
Disinterested means impartial, which is usually the better word to convey the thought: A disinterested observer is a fair judge.
Uninterested means that someone lacks interest: He was uninterested in the story she told.
Dr Pepper
Do not use period after Dr in Dr Pepper.
dorm, dormitory, dorms, dormitories
Do not use. Use residence hall(s) instead.
e.g.
For example should be used instead, except with certain technical or legal references. editor-in-chief Use hyphens. Capitalize when used before a name: Editor-in-Chief Suzie Smith.
effect
See the affect vs. effect entry.
emotion," he told the reporters. “I assure you, this team has been playing with a lot of life.

either
Use it to mean one or the other, not both.
Correct: She said to use either door.
Wrong: There were lions on either side of the door.
Correct: There were lions on each side of the door. There were lions on both sides of the door.

either ... or, neither ... nor
The nouns that follow these words do not constitute a compound subject; they are alternate subjects and require a verb that agrees with the nearer subject: Neither they nor he is going.

Professor of Political Science Steven Evans is chair of the department.

em dash
Use an em dash for explanatory breaks in thought, Gould’s lifework focuses on the concept of punctuated equilibrium — the idea that evolution is not a gradual process. The em dash (—), also known as the en rule, indicates a sudden break in thought — a parenthetical statement like this one — or an open range (such as “John Doe, 1987 —”).
The en dash (–), also known as the en rule, is one en in width: half the width of an en dash. The en dash is used to indicate a closed range, or a connection between two things of almost any kind: numbers, people, places, etc. Use an en dash for continuous numbers, 1974–1982.
When you type a space and one or two hyphens between text, Microsoft Word automatically inserts an en dash (—). If you type two hyphens and do not include a space before the hyphens, then an em dash (—) is created.
WITH SPACES: Put a space on both sides of an em dash in all uses except the start of a paragraph and sports agate summaries.

endowed chairs
Capitalize the formal name of the chair after the name of the professor: Jack Ryan, Shuler-Foscue Professor of Geological Sciences, is working on research for the Defense Department. Or, McElvaney Professor of Political Science Steven Evans is chair of the department.

enroll, register
Enroll is the preferred word.

ensure, insure, assure
Use ensure to mean guarantee: Steps were taken to ensure accuracy.
Use insure for references to insurance: The policy insures his life.
Assure means to make a person sure of something, or to convince: “I assure you, this team has been playing with a lot of emotion,” he told the reporters.

entitled vs. titled
Entitled means a right to do or have something and should not be used to mean titled. Titled is used when naming an academic essay, presentation, etc.

Both types of clauses provide additional information about a word or phrase in a sentence. The difference between them is that the essential clause cannot be eliminated without changing the meaning of the sentence — it so restricts the meaning of the word or phrase that its absence would lead to a substantially different interpretation of what the author meant. An essential clause does not require a comma.
The nonessential clause, however, can be eliminated without altering the basic meaning of the sentence — it does not restrict the meaning so significantly that its absence would radically alter the author’s thoughts. A nonessential clause requires a comma.
Refer to The AP Stylebook for a complete reference on this subject, including guidelines for punctuation.
In particular, this entry applies to “that” and “which.” See the that, which (pronouns) entry.

every day (adv.), everyday (adj.)
He goes to class every day. He wears his everyday cap.

every one, everyone
Two words when it means each individual item, one word when used as a pronoun meaning all persons.

ext.
Use ext. for extension when used with phone numbers.
For more information, call the Division of University Marketing Communications at (936) 468-2603, ext. 000.

extracurricular
One word.

faculty, faculty members
Only use members after faculty or staff if they are used alone. If both are used together, it is faculty and staff without members.
A singular noun that takes a singular verb when referring to the entire faculty. Examples: The faculty is meeting here.
In cases when faculty members are acting as individuals and not as a group, treat as plural. The faculty members were in disagreement.

faculty titles
See titles entry.
farther, further
   Farther refers to physical distance: He walked farther into the woods.
   Further refers to an extension of time or degree: She will look further into the mystery.

fax
   As an adjective, noun and verb.

federal
   Capitalize only for corporate or governmental bodies that use the word as part of their formal names: Federal Express, the Federal Trade Commission.
   Lowercase when used as an adjective to distinguish something from state, county, city, town or private entities: federal assistance, federal court, the federal government, a federal judge.
   Also, federal District Court (U.S. District Court is preferred) and federal judge William Wayne Justice (U.S. District Judge William Wayne Justice is preferred).

first come, first served Hyphenate when used as a compound modifier: They will be seated on a first-come, first-served basis.

firsthand
   One word, no hyphen in all uses.

first-year, first year
   Hyphenate as an adjective, Most first-year students live in residence halls.
   Leave open as a noun, All first years are encouraged to meet with their academic advisor.

foreign words
   bourgeois (adj.), bourgeoisie (n.), café, cliché, coup d’état, crème brûlée, cul-de-sac, faux pas, fin de siècle, hors d’oeuvre, liaison, mélange, naïve, naïveté, pro bono, raison d’être, résumé, sauté(ed), vis-à-vis, cum laude, summa cum laude.
   Foreign words not in common usage should be italicized. If the word is listed in “Foreign Words and Phrases” in Merriam-Webster’s Collegiate Dictionary, Eleventh Edition, it should be italicized. If listed in the English language portion, it is not necessary to italicize.

forego, forgo
   To forego means to go before, as in a foregone conclusion.
   To forgo means to abstain from or give up. I am forgoing my weekly trip to the grocery story.

former
   Always lowercase, but retain capitalization for a formal title used immediately before a name: former President Carter.

Fort Worth, Fort Lauderdale, Fort Burgwin Spell out, not Ft. Worth forward

   Not forwards.

fractions
   Spell out amounts less than one using hyphens between the words: two-thirds, three-fourths, four-fifths, etc. Use figures for precise amounts larger than one, converting to decimals whenever practical: 1 1/2, 3 3/4, 2 5/8, etc.

   Not calender.

freshman vs. first-year student
   In following The AP Stylebook’s preference for gender-neutral language, use first-year student in all references to a student in their first year of studies.

full time vs. full-time Hyphenate when used as a compound modifier: She has a full-time job. Open when used as an adverb: He works full time.

fundraising, fundraiser
   One word in all cases.

government
   In general, lowercase and never abbreviate: the federal government, the state government, the U.S. government. May be capitalized when used in an official name: SFA’s Department of Government.

grade, grader
   Hyphenate both the noun forms (first-grader, second-grader, 10th-grader) and the adjectival forms (a fourth-grade pupil, a 12th-grade pupil).

GPA
   Acceptable in all references.

grades
   Examples: an A, a B, a C, a D, an F, an I (Incomplete), a WP (Withdraw Passing), a WF (Withdraw Failing).
   Spell out the last three items on first reference because they are not commonly known. Do not use quotation marks around A or B, etc.
   When talking about grades in the plural, use an apostrophe: A’s, B’s, C’s, etc.

graduate
   As a verb, use graduate in the active voice: She graduated from the university. Passive voice is correct, although unnecessary: He was graduated from the university. Do not drop from: John Smith graduated from SFA.

gray
   Not grey. But, greyhound for the animal, and Greyhound for the bus company.

Greek(s)
   Capitalize when used in reference to a Greek-letter fraternity or sorority.

groundbreaking
   One word as an adjective and noun.
He, she, they
In following The AP Stylebook’s preference for gender-neutral language, avoid using he or she as a generic term. Replace with a specific singular or plural noun when possible; otherwise, use they/their. The campus always seems strange to a first-year student. The students will prepare for their exams. If the student cannot attend, they must schedule a new date.

Historian, historic, historical, history
A historic event is an important occurrence, one that stands out in history. Any occurrence in the past is a historical event. Use a, not an, before each of these words: a history, a historian, a historic event, etc.

Home page
Two words.

House of Representatives
Capitalize when referring to a specific governmental body: the U.S. House of Representatives, the Texas House of Representatives.
Capitalize shortened references that delete the words of Representatives: the U.S. House, the Texas House, etc.

Hyphen
See the hyphen (-) entry in The AP Stylebook for details. Hyphens are joiners. Use them to avoid ambiguity or to form a single idea from two or more words. Use them to form a compound modifier if it’s needed to make the meaning clear and avoid unintended meanings: small-business owner is the owner of a small business, whereas small business owner indicates the owner of that business is small in stature. Normally, close words with the prefixes re, pre, non, post unless the second element begins with the same vowel or a proper noun. Pre-element, re-election, post-Renaissance.

I.e.,
“That is” or “such as” should be used instead, except with certain technical or legal references. Followed by a comma.

Imply vs. infer
Writers or speakers imply in the words they use. A listener or reader infers something from the words.

Inc.
Do not need.

Insure
See the ensure, insure, assure entry.

Internet
Lowercase.

Intranet
Lowercase.

It’s vs. its
It’s is a contraction for it is or it has: It’s up to you, It’s been a long time. Its is the possessive form of the neuter pronoun: The company lost its assets.

Jacks
Not Jacks.

Judgment
Not judgement.

Junior, senior Abbreviate as Jr. and Sr. only with the full names of persons. Do not precede by a comma: John F. Kennedy Jr. The notation II or 2nd also may be used if it is the individual’s preference. Note, however, that II and 2nd are not necessarily the equivalent of junior—they often are used by a grandchild or a nephew/niece. In formal publications, such as commencement programs and invitations, it is acceptable to use a comma before the suffix or if there is a personal preference.

Kickoff, kick off
One word as an adjective and noun. Two words as a verb.

Ladyjack or Ladyjacks
Lanana Creek
When referring to the Nacogdoches body of water.

LaNana Creek Press

Languages
Capitalize the proper names of languages and dialects: Aramaic, Cajun, English, French, Persian, Spanish, etc.

Laptop
One word.

Lay vs. lie
The action word is lay. (If the word “put” can be substituted, lay is the proper word.) It takes a direct object. Laid is the form for its past tense and its past participle. Its present participle is laying. Lie indicates a state of reclining along a horizontal plane. It does not take a direct object. Its past tense is lay. Its past participle is lain. Its present participle is lying.

When lie means to make an untrue statement, the verb forms are: lie, lied, lying. Examples: I will lay the book on the table. The prosecutor tried to lay the blame on him. He lies (not lays) on the beach all day. He is lying on the beach. He lay on the beach (past tense of lie).

Not laypeople.

lecture titles
Capitalize and use quotes (no italics) for their formal titles: Archaeology Professor Mike Snyder will present “A Study of Iron Age Inhabitants of the Northeast Texas Area.”

See The AP Stylebook.

legislative titles
FIRST REFERENCE: Use Rep., Rep.s., Sen., and Sens. as formal titles before one or more names in regular text. Spell out and capitalize these titles before one or more names in a direct quotation. Spell out and lowercase representative and senator in other uses.

Add U.S. or state before a title only if necessary to avoid confusion: U.S. Rep. Jim Chapman met with state Rep. Pete Patterson Friday.

SECOND REFERENCE: Do not use legislative titles before a name on second reference unless they are part of a direct quotation.

CONGRESSMAN, CONGRESSWOMAN: Rep. and U.S. Rep. are the preferred first-reference forms when a formal title is used before the name of a U.S. House member.

In stand-alone references, the terms U.S. House representative, representative, member of Congress are preferred. Congressman and congresswoman are acceptable. Do not use congressperson. Congressman and congresswoman should appear as capitalized formal titles before a name only in direct quotation.

liaison

lifestyle
Not life style or life-style.

likable
Not likeable.

lists, bulleted lists
Bulleted lists can be categorized according to the introductory phrase.

When a phrase introduces a list and each line needs the phrase to make a complete sentence:

- end the introductory phrase with a colon
- start each line with a lowercase letter, unless it is a proper noun
- add and or or before the last line
- and use a period only at the end of the last line in the list.

Do not use a comma or semicolon at the end of each line as the bullet replaces these. If there are complete sentences inside any line, enclose sentence(s) in parentheses.

All employees must complete:

- form 1106
- nonrefundable $35 fee (Payment must be cashier’s check or money order.)
- and credit questionnaire.

When a phrase introduces a list but each line does not need the phrase to make complete sentences, end the introductory phrase with a colon. Start each line with an uppercase letter, and end each line with a period.

If you need further information:

- Check your manual.
- Contact your client.

When there is no introductory phrase and each line forms at least one complete sentence, start each line with an uppercase letter, and end each line with a period.

- Sign all necessary forms.
- Seal the document.
- Mail it to SFA.

Whether there is or is not an introductory phrase, if lines do not form complete sentences, start each line with an uppercase letter. Do not use a period at the end of the list.

Possible careers you can have with an anthropology, geography and sociology degree include:

- Cartographer
- Criminologist
- Geography teacher

logo
The university logo is the purple and white Texas outline with a star in the location of Nacogdoches and the letters SFA diagonally stacked. The university seal, a circle with a star and the likeness of Stephen F. Austin in the center, is for use only on official documents, such as diplomas, and at the discretion of the president and board of regents.

The university logo should appear in a prominent location on all university documents. See the Graphic Design Guide for more information.

Lumberjack or Lumberjacks

-ly
Do not use a hyphen between adverbs ending in -ly and adjectives they modify: an easily remembered rule, a badly damaged ship, a fully informed person. (See Chicago Manual of Style, 15th edition.)

magazine names
Capitalize the initial letters of the name, but do not place it in quotes. Lowercase magazine unless it is part of the publication’s formal title. Check the masthead if in doubt.
majors
Lowercase names of majors when used in copy or bulleted list forms. She received a bachelor’s degree in marketing communications and corporate communications. He was awarded a doctorate in anthropology. They earned a Bachelor of Arts in history.

majority vs. plurality Majority means more than half of an amount. Plurality means more than the next highest number. For example, 51 votes for one person out of a possible 100 would be a majority, while 40 votes for one person and 30 votes for another would constitute a plurality.

mapperspace

media
In the sense of mass communication, such as magazines, newspapers, the news services, radio and television, the word is plural: The news media are often the target of criticism.

memento, mementos

memorandum, memorandums

midmester

midnight
Do not put a 12 in front of it. It is part of the day that is ending, not the one that is beginning.

military titles
Capitalize a military rank when used as a formal title before an individual’s name. Spell out any title used before a name in a direct quotation.

On subsequent references, do not continue using the title before a name. When a title is substituted for a name, spell out and lowercase. For more information, see The AP Stylebook’s military titles entry.

months
When a month is used with a specific date, abbreviate only Jan., Feb., Aug., Sept., Oct., Nov. and Dec. Spell out when using alone, or with a year alone, or when the month is the first word of the sentence. See dates.

music
Capitalize but do not use quotation marks for orchestral works: Bach’s Suite No. 1 for Orchestra. If the work has a special full title, all of it is quoted: “Rhapsody in Blue,” “Symphonie Fantastique.”

named after/named for Use “after” when the occasion occurs when the person named is deceased; use “for” when the occasion occurs when the person is still living.

SFA is named after the Father of Texas. The Naymola Basketball Performance Center is named for businessman Loddie Naymola.

nation
Use only in reference to a country when the subject deals with governmental or political matters. The nation was founded in 1885 but This country has three mountain ranges.

nationwide

nondiscrimination statement Nondiscrimination statement must be used in its entirety with no deletions. SFA (or Stephen F. Austin State University) does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, sex or disability.

noon, midnight
Do not put a 12 in front of it.

In text, and in general, spell out numbers one through nine. Use numerals for 10 and above. Some exceptions are percentages, ratios, monetary amounts, temperature readings, ages, physical dimensions and sports scores: 44.4%, 104%, $4 (not four dollars), 4° C or four degrees centigrade (not 4 degrees centigrade). They won the baseball game 4-2. She is 4 years old, The porch is 9 feet by 11 feet, etc.

However, writers should never create a barrier to the reader’s understanding. If following the rule causes confusion, do not follow the rule. The academy is for students in eighth through twelfth grade.

LARGE NUMBERS: When large numbers must be spelled out, use a hyphen to connect a word ending in “y” to another word; do not use commas between other separate words that are part of one number: twenty, forty, twenty-one, forty-one, one hundred forty-four, one thousand four hundred forty-four, one million four hundred forty-four thousand four hundred forty-four.

SENTENCE START: Spell out a numeral at the beginning of a sentence. If necessary, rewrite the sentence to avoid this. The only exception to this rule is when a sentence is started with a number that identifies a calendar year:

Wrong: 444 first-year students entered SFA last year.
Correct: Last year, 444 first-year students entered SFA.
Correct: 1989 was a very good year. (It is rare, however, that an effective sentence begins with a date.)

CASUAL USES: Spell out casual expressions: For the thousandth time, please clean the house. Thanks a million. She jogged a quarter of a mile.

PROPER NAMES: Use words or numerals according to an organization’s practice: 21st Century Fox, Twentieth Century Fund, etc.

FIGURES OR WORDS: Spell out first through ninth when they indicate sequence in time or location: first base, the First Amendment, he was first in line. Starting with 10th, use figures.

Use 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, etc. when the sequence has been assigned in forming names. The principle examples are geographic, military and political designations, such as 1st Ward, 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, 7th fleet, 1st Sgt.

PLURAL NUMBERS: Add an “s” with no apostrophe to form plurals: She throw 6s and She remembers the 60s.

CENTURIES: The “10 and above” rule applies. Spell out centuries below 10; use numerals for 10 and above. Lowercase century: the 21st century, the fourth century, etc.
COMMAS: Include commas in all four-digit numbers except when listing years, SAT scores, tax forms, rules and regulations, and product model numbers: 1,458; 4,404; 9,999; etc. But, He scored 1100 on the SAT in 1993. Also, Form 1040A, Amendment 2401C, Ferrari 8000XT.

Don’t use commas around the year when it is written with a specific month: July 1990, not July, 1990. However, do set off the year with commas when a specific month and day are used: July 1, 1969, was a particularly hot day.

It is preferred that “on” not be used before dates: The Lumberjacks will play Navy Nov. 1 in Nacogdoches.

nursing degrees
Master of Science in Nursing Bachelor of Science in Nursing
These are permissible because “Nursing” is part of the degree acronym MSN and BSN.

off
The of is unnecessary: He fell off the stage, not He fell off of the stage.

OK
Not okay, o’kay or O.K.

Ol’ Cotton

on-campus, off-campus
Hyphenate only when used as a compound modifier. She used the sources available from the on-campus libraries. He decided to live off campus.

online
One word, no hyphen, no matter the usage when referring to computer networks and services available via modem, such as the internet.

Orientation
Always capitalize when referring to SFA’s official Orientation events. Also named Lumberjack Orientation or Virtual Orientation.

In most cases, try to use the phrase more than: The course required more than eight hours of study each week. While over is generally used for spatial relationships, such as The plane flew over the city, it can be used with numerals at times: She is over 30 and The shortstop hit over 30 home runs and had over 30 stolen bases.

overused words
Try to avoid overusing or trivializing descriptive words, such as unique, excellent, excellence, really, very, state-of-the-art, acclaimed, nationally/internationally recognized, world-class, quality and prestigious.

parentheses
See entry in the punctuation section in The AP Stylebook.

part time vs. part-time
Apply the same rules as full time and full-time. In other words, hyphenate only when used as a compound modifier: She works at the restaurant part time. She has a part-time job.

parts-of-term fall I fall II full fall spring I spring II
full spring
Maymester
summer I summer II full summer

percent
Use the % sign when paired with a number, with no space, in most cases (a change in 2019): Average hourly pay rose 3.1% from a year ago; her mortgage rate is 4.75%; about 60% of Americans agreed; he won 56.2% of the vote. Use figures: 1%, 4 percentage points.

For amounts less than 1%, precede the decimal with a zero: The cost of living rose 0.6%.

In casual uses, use words rather than figures and numbers: She said he has a zero percent chance of winning.

At the start of a sentence: Try to avoid this construction. If it’s necessary to start a sentence with a percentage, spell out both: Eighty-nine percent of sentences don’t have to begin with a number.

phone numbers
When referring to a phone number in text or on a poster, brochure, flyer, etc., use parentheses and a dash: (936) 468-2605 Always use dots for web: 936.468.2605

piney woods
Texas Forest Country is preferred over piney woods, unless in name of organization or establishment. i.e. Piney Woods Conservation Center; Piney Woods Area Health Education Center. Two words unless used as single word in proper name, Pineywoods Native Plant Center.

possessives
See entry in The AP Stylebook.

postsecondary potato Definitely no e. Ditto with tomato. Plural: potatoes, tomatoes.

pre
Follow Webster’s New World College Dictionary. Hyphenate if not listed there. A 2019 change: In recognition of common usage and dictionary preferences, do not hyphenate double-e combinations with pre- and re-. Examples: preclampsia, preelection, preeminent, preempt, preestablished, preexisting and those listed in re-. Other rules in prefixes apply.

pre-physician assistant Not physician’s

prerequisite President’s Honor Roll
Capitalize in all uses.

press
Use only when referring specifically to the print medium. Otherwise, use news media (for both print and broadcast). In particular: news release.

principal vs. principle
Principal is a noun and adjective meaning someone or something first in authority, rank, importance or degree: She is the school principal. He was the principal player in the trade. Or a capital sum placed at interest, due as a debt, or used as a fund. A portion of the annual income payment is a tax-free return of principal.

Principle is a noun that means a fundamental truth, law, doctrine or motivating force: They fought for the principle of self-determination.

professor
Never abbreviate and, as with other titles, capitalize only when it precedes a name: Professor of Journalism Bob Rogers praised the student for his excellent feature story, but Bob Rogers, professor of journalism, praised the student for his work.

However, capitalize the formal name of an endowed chair whether it is placed before or after the name: Mike Snyder, the Christopher and Kelly Rogers Professor of Political Science, gave the lecture.

For clarity and consistency, use figures and hyphens: the ratio was 4-to-1, a ratio of 4-to-1, a 4-1 ratio. As shown, the word to should be omitted when the numbers precede the word ratio. Always use the word ratio or a phrase such as a 2:1 majority to avoid confusion with actual figures.

religious references
Capitalize the proper names of monotheistic deities: God, Allah, the Father, the Son, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Redeemer, the Holy Spirit, etc. However, lowercase pronouns referring to the deity: he, him, his, thee, thou, who, whose, thy, etc.

Lowercase gods in referring to the deities of polytheistic religions, but capitalize the proper names of pagan gods and goddesses: Neptune, Thor, Venus, etc.

Lowercase such words and phrases as god-awful, godlike, godliness and godsend.

See the religious references entry in The AP Stylebook for more guidance on this topic.

religious titles
The first reference to a clergyman or clergywoman may include a capitalized title before the individual’s name. When using the title “reverend,” always precede it with “the” and always abbreviate and capitalize Rev. The Rev. Billy Graham spoke at the conference. The conference speakers were the Rev. Billy Graham and Howard Stern.

Do not use the Rev. Dr. Use the Rev. Dr. only if the individual has an earned doctoral degree (doctor of divinity degrees frequently are honorary) and reference to the degree is relevant.

RELLIS Academic Alliance
First reference add “in Bryan” after the word “Alliance.”

résumé

Rio Grande

room numbers
When giving a location on campus, give the building first then room number. Spell out the word Building, capitalize “Room” and separate with a comma. Austin Building, Room 307.

ROTC
Acceptable for all references to the Reserve Officers’ Training Corps, a nationwide program on many college campuses aimed at preparing young people to become officers in the U.S. armed services.

If reference to a specific service branch is necessary, use the following forms: Army ROTC or Air Force ROTC (no periods). Although SFA offers only the Army and Air Force versions (Air Force ROTC is offered through the University of North Texas, in conjunction with SFA), other colleges and universities also may offer Navy ROTC. (Navy ROTC includes those training for careers in both the Navy and the Marine Corps.) Do not use the abbreviations AROTC, AFROTC or NROTC.

Quotation marks
See entry in the punctuation section in The AP Stylebook.

Racket
Not racquet, when referring to the light bat used in tennis and badminton.
school
In general, capitalize when used as part of a specific name: The School of Art attracts talented students and faculty members from around the world. Or: The School of Human Sciences has a variety of degree programs. The schools at SFA are working on interdisciplinary courses.

science, technology, engineering and mathematics Spell out on first reference. Use STEM thereafter.

seasons
Lowercase all seasons and seasonal terms, such as fall, winter, wintertime, etc., unless they are part of a formal title: Springfest, Winter Olympics, Summer Olympics, Fall Festival, etc.

semesters
Do not capitalize the names of semesters. Only Maymester is capitalized. Registration for fall 2006 semester begins today. fall, spring, Maymester and summer
See also Parts-Of-Term entry.

service clubs
Capitalize the proper names: American Legion, Lions Club, Kiwanis Club, Rotary Club.
Also, capitalize words describing membership, as well as the formal titles of officeholders when used before a name: He is a Rotarian, a Lion, a Kiwanian, Lion’s District Governor Clarke Keys.

SFA-TV2

shut out (v.) shutout (n.)

staff, staff members
See faculty, faculty members entry.

The names of the 50 U.S. states should be spelled out when used in the body of the story, whether standing alone or in conjunction with a city, town, village or military base.
Lowercase in state of constructions: He is licensed in the state of Texas. Also, do not capitalize when referring to a level of legal or political jurisdiction: state Sen. Bill Ratliff, state Rep. Pete Patterson, the state Transportation Department.
There is no need to specify Texas with Texas cities and towns, unless the name could be confused with another location (i.e. Paris, Jacksonvillle, Moscow). There is no need to use state designations with these U.S. cities: Anchorage, Atlanta, Baltimore, Boise, Boston, Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Denver, Detroit, Honolulu, Indianapolis, Los Angeles, Miami, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, New Orleans, New York, Oklahoma City, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Salt Lake City, San Diego, San Francisco, Seattle, Washington.

Stephen F. Austin statue
May also use Surfin’ Steve informally.

Stone Fort Museum
student-athlete

subject
Lowercase subjects, unless a language or followed by a roman numeral. English, French, Algebra I.

TDP (time, date, place)
When listing the time, month, date and place of an event in news copy or text, list in this order: The sports banquet will take place at 7 p.m. Saturday, July 1, in Johnson Coliseum. The lecture will be from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. March 3-16 in the Baker Pattillo Student Center. The bonfire will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 23, on the Intramural Fields.

On invitations and programs, order may vary.

television
Spell out or use abbreviation TV. Not T.V. or tv.

that, which (pronouns)
Use that and which when referring to inanimate objects and to animals without a name. When choosing between the two, it often is necessary to determine whether the word will be used in an essential clause or in a nonessential clause.

Both types of clauses provide additional information about a word or a phrase in a sentence. The basic difference between the two lies in the fact that an essential clause cannot be taken out of the sentence without changing the sentence’s meaning. In other words, it is so essential to the phrase that its absence would lead to a substantially different interpretation of what the writer meant. That is the preferred pronoun to use when introducing essential clauses that refer to inanimate objects or animals without a name.

A nonessential clause, therefore, is a clause that can be taken out without changing the basic meaning of the sentence. Which is the only acceptable pronoun to introduce a nonessential clause that refers to an inanimate object or an animal without a name.

PUNCTUATION: An essential clause must not be set off from the rest of the sentence by commas, while a nonessential clause must be set off by commas.

EXAMPLES: The ruling that overturned the holiday schedule resulted in protests. The unpopular ruling, which was announced Tuesday, resulted in protests.

teater vs. theatre
When in reference to SFA’s School of Theatre, always use theatre.

Use theater when making a generic reference: I am going to the theater.

When used with a proper name, spell in accordance with the correct title of the facility: Bob Hope Theatre, Margo Jones Theatre, Greer Garson Theatre, but Hughes-Trigg Theater. Also in reference to Meadows – Division of Theatre, Theatre Studies.

times
Use figures with all times except for noon and midnight, which should stand alone.

When using times for events that occur at the start of the hour, do not include :00. For example: The meeting will begin at 11 a.m., and should last until 4 p.m. For times that must include both the hour and the minute, use a colon: 8:30 a.m., 4:44 p.m., 2 a.m.

Use lowercase a.m. and p.m. with periods between the letters. Do not use AM, A.M., PM, P.M.

Also, avoid such redundancies as 4 a.m. in the morning, 8 p.m. at night, etc. If necessary, use 4 a.m. today or 8 p.m. Monday, etc.

titled vs. entitled See entitled vs. titled entry.

Titles before a name should be capitalized only if they denote a scope of authority or professional activity so specific that the designation becomes almost as much an integral part of an individual’s identity as a proper name itself: President George W. Bush. Because this rule is subject to interpretation, most titles should be written after the name, in which case they would always be lowercased. If this is not possible, use the following guidelines:

Capitalize and spell out formal titles, such as professor, chancellor, chair and dean, when they precede a name. Dean James Standley, Professor of Anthropology Karol Chandler-Ezzell.

Uppercase a title following a name if it is an endowed chair or title. Michael Fountain, Laurence C. Walker Distinguished Professor of Forestry, is the author.

When using dean, notation should read as the dean of U. Narayan Bhat, dean of research and graduate studies.

Retired faculty members who teach part time are titled adjunct faculty members. Do not add ABD to any title. Only note the last degree completed.

When using a title in a quote, use a verb-subject arrangement. Instead of Dr. Lorenzo Smith, provost and vice president for academic affairs, said … , use said Dr. Lorenzo Smith, provost and vice president for academic affairs.

toward
Not towards.

T-shirt
Not T-shirt, T shirt, tee shirt, etc.
underway
One word.

United States
Spell out when standing alone. Use the abbreviated form, U.S., only as an adjective. The United States is the best country in the world, but Kay Bailey Hutchison is a U.S. senator. My son is studying U.S. history. See also nation.

university
When referring to SFA use the following forms: Stephen F. Austin State University (first reference), SFA or the university (second reference). When referring to an institution in general, use lowercase: There are many fine universities in the state of Texas.

universitywide

vice Use two words with no hyphen: vice president, vice chair.

videocamera
One word.

videoconference, videoconferencing
One word.

voicemail
One word.

W

Washington
Never abbreviate when referring to the U.S. capital. When you need to distinguish between the state and the federal district, use state of Washington or Washington state and Washington, D.C., or District of Columbia. (Note the comma after Washington.)

web

website
Do not use “http://” or any variant. Do not use “www.” unless necessary, i.e. if the website does not work without it or if it is unclear that it is a website.

If a website or email address comes at the end of sentence, punctuate accordingly. For more information, visit our website at sfasu.edu.

who vs. whom
Use who when referring to human beings and to animals with a name.

Who is the word when someone is the subject of a sentence: The player who hit the home run is circling the bases or Who is it?

Whom is the word when someone is the object of a verb or a preposition: The player to whom the home run was credited is circling the bases, or With whom do you wish to speak?

World Wide Web
Capitalize each word of this formal name for the system that links computer users worldwide.

worldwide

Xerox
A trademark for a photocopy machine. Do not use generically or as a verb.

X-ray
Use in all cases as a noun, verb and adjective. Not x-ray.

Use figures without commas: 1991, 2005, etc. When referring to decades or centuries, use an “s” without an apostrophe: the 1890s, the 1920s, the 1960s, etc.

Years are the lone exception to the general rule that numbers should not be used to start a sentence: 1989 was an extraordinary year. But try to avoid this construction.

zero, zeros
No “e” in either case.

ZIP code
ZIP is an acronym for Zone Improvement Program. Don’t use periods between each letter.
Names of Departments/Offices Divisions/Schools/Centers
