- In 1920, Everett McKay owned the lot. A 1929 sanborn map shows that there was a residential house located on the property.
- McKay sold the land to Charles Bright on August 9, 1961.
- Bright sold the lot to the Delta Kappa Housing Foundation on August 3, 1974 for $58,000.
- Between 1974 and 1984, the Delta Kappa Housing Foundation rented out the house to the Stephen F. Austin State University fraternity Kappa Alpha.
- The Delta Kappa Housing Foundation sold the lot to the Nacogdoches Hospital District on May 8, 1984.
- In 1987, the house on the lot was torn down.
- The hospital district gave ownership of the land to Gayla Jo Folwer on March 9, 1997.
- Gayla Folwer gave the land to Sidney Folwer in 1997.
- In 2001, Sidney Folwer gave the land back to the hospital district, who owns it currently.
- At some point after 1987, the house was torn down and lot turned into a parking lot.
