

The Gilbert C. Hanke Scholarship

The Gilbert C. Hanke Scholarship was established in 2005 by the staff and friends of the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders of Stephen F. Austin State University. This award is given to a graduate student who has demonstrated clinical excellence. Recipients of this scholarship are selected by the faculty early in the spring semester. The award is given at the TSHA Foundation Luncheon or Dinner at the TSHA convention. The amount is approximately $900-$1000.

To apply, please submit:

- Application cover page
- A letter addressed to the Communication Sciences and Disorders Department detailing academic achievement, involvement in the SFASU Chapter of the National Student Speech-Language-Hearing Association, honors and aspirations for the future. Include your academic and clinical strengths as well as areas you believe need further improvement. Describe what makes you unique, and why you should receive this scholarship.
- Current transcript
- All end-of-semester clinical evaluation reports
