

Transportation of Patients/Clients/Students Policy 1.12

Original Implementation: February 2, 1994

Last Revision: May 2019

Students shall not transport clients in their vehicles. This policy protects both students and clients. When clients are in need of transportation for health purposes, volunteers, and agencies may provide this service.

Faculty will not transport students or clients in their vehicles. This policy protects both the student and faculty.