

Summer Teaching Policy 2.12

Original Implementation: February 7, 2003

Last Revision: May 2019

The School of Nursing (SON) offers no guarantee of a summer teaching appointment. All summer instructional contracts are contingent upon sufficient class enrollment, availability of funding, and faculty member expertise. Faculty will notify the director of the SON if summer employment is desired. The director will make teaching assignments based on the criteria outlined above.