

The Stone Fort Museum

invites you to

An Afternoon Tea with Anna Raguet

Saturday, February 13, 2010
2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Tea and lemonade will be served on the lawn along with cakes and finger food.

We are celebrating the completion of conservation treatments on the dress worn by Anna Raguet upon her marriage in 1840 to Robert Irion. Her dress will be newly installed in the exhibit, Building a Community & the Meaning of Leadership.

Treatments of Anna Raguet's wedding dress and the wedding dress of her daughter, Harriet Irion, were made possible through support from the Institute for Museums and Library Services' American

Anna Raguet's wedding dress, worn by her great-granddaughter, Anna Kathryn Holbrook

Stephen F. Austin State University
Nacogdoches, Texas

